LILLY EXTENDS HART-SCOTT-RODINO WAITING PERIOD FOR MCKESSON TENDER OFFER

Eli Lilly and Company announced today that it has agreed to extend the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act in connection with its tender offer for McKesson Corporation until Thursday, November 3, 1994. The waiting period, as previously extended, was scheduled to expire on October 27, 1994. Lilly said its discussions with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) were progressing, and that Lilly was hopeful that it will complete the FTC clearance process by November 3.

However, no assurance can be given that this will occur. For this reason, as well as to permit McKesson time to complete the previously announced distribution of stock of a newly formed McKesson corporation to its stockholders, it may be necessary to further extend Lilly's offer to purchase the common stock of McKesson, which is currently scheduled to expire on Monday, November 7, 1994.
