On May 20, 2026, Eli Lilly and Company (the “Company”) completed its offering of $750,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Floating Rate Notes due 2028 (the “2028 Floating Rate Notes”), $500,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Floating Rate Notes due 2029 (the “2029 Floating Rate Notes”) and, together with the 2028 Floating Rate Notes, the “Floating Rate Notes”), $750,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 4.150% Notes due 2029 (the “2029 Notes”), $1,500,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 4.375% Notes due 2031 (the “2031 Notes”), $1,250,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 4.650% Notes due 2033 (the “2033 Notes”), $1,500,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 4.850% Notes due 2036 (the “2036 Notes”), $1,750,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 5.600% Notes due 2056 (the “2056 Notes”) and $1,000,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 5.700% Notes due 2066 (the “2066 Notes” and, collectively with the 2029 Notes, the 2031 Notes, the 2033 Notes, the 2036 Notes and the 2056 Notes, the “Fixed Rate Notes,” and together with the Floating Rate Notes, the “Notes”).

The Notes were sold pursuant to an underwriting agreement (the “Underwriting Agreement”), by and among the Company, Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC, Citigroup Global Markets Inc., Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. and Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC, as representatives of the several underwriters named therein. Each series of Notes was issued pursuant to an Indenture (the “Indenture”), dated February 1, 1991, between the Company and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas (as successor to Citibank, N.A.), as trustee, and an officers’ certificate setting forth the terms of the Notes (including the forms of such Notes as exhibits). The offering of the Notes was registered on a Registration Statement on Form S-3 (File No. 333-285052). After deduction of underwriting discounts and before deduction of estimated offering expenses payable by the Company, net proceeds from the offering to the Company were approximately $8.94 billion.

The Floating Rate Notes accrue interest at a floating rate, reset and payable quarterly, equal to Compounded SOFR (as defined in the accompanying form of officers’ certificate relating to the Floating Rate Notes) plus 0.350% (for the 2028 Floating Rate Notes) or 0.460% (for the 2029 Floating Rate Notes). The Fixed Rate Notes accrue interest at a rate per annum, payable semi-annually, of 4.650% (for the 2029 Notes), 4.375% (for the 2031 Notes), 4.650% (for the 2033 Notes), 4.850% (for the 2036 Notes), 5.600% (for the 2056 Notes), or 5.700% (for the 2066 Notes). Except as contemplated in the following paragraph and subject to the mandatory redemption provisions described below for the applicable series of Notes, each series of Notes matures on May 20 of the year of its stated maturity.

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default (as defined in the Indenture) with respect to a series of Notes, the principal amount of the Notes of that series may be declared, and become, immediately due and payable. The Company may, at its election, redeem the Fixed Rate Notes, in whole or in part, from time to time at the redemption prices and on the terms and conditions set forth in the Fixed Rate Notes. In addition, certain series of the Fixed Rate Notes are subject to the mandatory redemption provisions described below. Subject to the mandatory redemption provisions described below for the applicable series of Floating Rate Notes, the Company may not redeem the Floating Rate Notes at its option prior to maturity.

In the event that (x) the Centessa Acquisition (as defined in the applicable Notes) is not consummated on or prior to the date that is five (5) business days after the later of (i) March 31, 2027 or (ii) any later date as the parties to the Centessa Agreement (as defined in the applicable Notes) may agree as the “Outside Date” thereunder or (y) the Company notifies the trustee in writing that it will not pursue the consummation of the Centessa Acquisition, the Company will be required to redeem the 2029 Floating Rate Notes, the 2029 Notes, the 2031 Notes, the 2033 Notes and the 2036 Notes (collectively, the “Centessa Mandatorily Redeemable Notes”) then outstanding (such redemption, the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption”) at a redemption price equal to 101% of the principal amount of such Centessa Mandatorily Redeemable Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the mandatory redemption date. The 2028 Floating Rate Notes, the 2056 Notes and the 2066 Notes do not constitute Centessa Mandatorily Redeemable Notes and will not be subject to the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption.

The above description of the Underwriting Agreement and the Notes is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Underwriting Agreement, the forms of officers’ certificate, the Indenture and the forms of the Notes filed as exhibits hereto, which exhibits are incorporated by reference herein.

UNDERWRITING AGREEMENT
STANDARD PROVISIONS (DEBT SECURITIES)

February 20, 2014

From time to time, Eli Lilly and Company, an Indiana corporation (the “Company”), may enter into one or more underwriting agreements in the form of Annex A hereto that provide for the sale of designated securities (the “Offered Securities”) to the several underwriters named therein (each an “Underwriter” and collectively, the “Underwriters”) for whom certain Underwriter(s) named therein shall act as representative(s) (the “Representative(s)”). The standard provisions set forth herein may be incorporated by reference in any such underwriting agreement (an “Underwriting Agreement”). The Underwriting Agreement, including the provisions incorporated therein by reference, is herein referred to as this Agreement. Terms defined in the Underwriting Agreement are used herein as therein defined.

The Company has prepared and filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder (collectively, the “Securities Act”), a registration statement on Form S-3 relating to, inter alia, the debt securities to be issued from time to time by the Company. The Company has also filed, or proposes to file, with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424 under the Securities Act a prospectus generally relating to the debt securities (the “Basic Prospectus”) and a prospectus supplement specifically relating to the Offered Securities (the “Prospectus Supplement”). The registration statement, as amended at the time it becomes effective, including the information, if any, deemed pursuant to Rule 430A, 430B or 430C under the Securities Act to be part of the registration statement at the time of its effectiveness (“Rule 430 Information”), is referred to herein as the “Registration Statement”; and as used herein, the term “Prospectus” means the Basic Prospectus as supplemented by the prospectus supplement specifically relating to the Offered Securities in the form first used (or made available upon request of purchasers pursuant to Rule 173 under the Securities Act) in connection with confirmation of sales of the Offered Securities and the term “Preliminary Prospectus” means the preliminary prospectus supplement specifically relating to the Offered Securities together with the Basic Prospectus. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Registration Statement and the Prospectus. References herein to the Registration Statement, the Basic Prospectus, the Preliminary Prospectus or the Prospectus shall be deemed to refer to and include the documents incorporated by reference therein. The terms “supplement,” “amendment” and “amend” as used herein with respect to the Registration Statement, any Preliminary Prospectus or the Prospectus shall be deemed to include any documents filed by the Company under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder (the “Exchange Act”) subsequent to the date of the Underwriting Agreement which are deemed to be incorporated by reference therein. For purposes of this Agreement, the term “Effective Time” means the effective date of the Registration Statement with respect to the offering of the Offered Securities, as determined for the Company pursuant to Section 11 of the Securities Act and Item 512 of Regulation S-K, as applicable.

At or prior to the time when sales of the Offered Securities will be first made (the “Time of Sale”), the Company will prepare certain information (collectively, the “Time of Sale Information”) which information will be identified in Schedule 3 to the Underwriting Agreement, or such other schedule as specified therein, for such offering as constituting part of the Time of Sale Information.

1. Representations and Warranties. The Company represents and warrants to each of the Underwriters that:

(a) The Registration Statement is an “automatic shelf registration statement” as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act that has been filed with the Commission not earlier than three years prior to the date hereof; and no notice of objection of the Commission to the use of such registration statement or any post-effective amendment thereto pursuant to Rule 401(g)(2) under the Securities Act has been received by the Company. the Company makes no representation and warranty with respect to any statements or omissions made in each such Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or Preliminary Prospectus in reliance upon and in conformity with information relating to any Underwriter furnished to the Company in writing by such Underwriter through the Representative(s) expressly for use in any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or Preliminary Prospectus.

(n) The Company maintains an effective system of “disclosure controls and procedures” (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) under the Exchange Act) that is designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Commission’s rules and forms, including controls and procedures designed to ensure that such information is accumulated and communicated to the Company’s management as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. The Company has carried out evaluations of the effectiveness of its disclosure controls and procedures as required by Rule 13a-15 under the Exchange Act.

(o) The Company maintains systems of “internal control over financial reporting” (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act) that comply with the requirements of the Exchange Act and have been designed by, or under the supervision of, its principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, including, but not limited to internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurance that (i) transactions are executed in accordance with management’s general or specific authorizations; (ii) transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and to maintain asset accountability; (iii) access to assets is permitted only in accordance with management’s general or specific authorization; and (iv) the recorded accountability for assets is compared with the existing assets at reasonable intervals and appropriate action is taken with respect to any differences. Except as disclosed in the Registration Statement, the Time of Sale Information and the Prospectus, there are no material weaknesses in the Company’s internal controls.

(p) There is and has been no failure on the part of the Company or any of the Company's directors or officers, in their capacities as such, to comply in all material respects with all applicable provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the rules and regulations promulgated in connection therewith, including Section 402 related to loans and Sections 302 and 906 related to certifications.

(q) The interactive data in the eXtensible Business Reporting Language included as an exhibit to the Registration Statement fairly presents the information called for in all material respects and has been prepared in accordance with the Commission's rules and guidelines applicable thereto.

(r) The Company has policies and procedures in place that are reasonably designed to ensure compliance with the various anti-corruption laws in the regions in which the Company conducts business. Except as set forth in the Registration Statement, the Prospectus and the Time of Sale Information, there are no material existing, pending, or to the Company's knowledge, threatened proceedings that involve allegations that the Company, any of its subsidiaries or any of its directors, officers, agents, employees, or affiliates has violated either (i) the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder (the "FCPA"), including, without limitation, making use of the mails or any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce corruptly in furtherance of an offer, payment, promise to pay or authorization of the payment of any money, or other property, gift, promise to give, or authorization of the giving of anything of value to any "foreign official" (as such term is defined in the FCPA) or any foreign political party or official thereof or any candidate for foreign political office, in contravention of the FCPA or (ii) the U.K. Bribery Act 2010.

(s) The operations of the Company and its subsidiaries are and have been conducted at all times in compliance in all material respects with applicable financial recordkeeping and reporting requirements of the Currency and Foreign Transactions Reporting Act of 1970, as amended. No action, suit or proceeding by or before any Governmental Entity involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries with respect to the money laundering statutes of all jurisdictions, the rules and regulations thereunder and any related or similar rules, regulations or guidelines, issued, administered or enforced by any Governmental Entity is pending or, to the best knowledge of the Company, threatened.

(t) None of the Company, any of its subsidiaries or, to the knowledge of the Company, any of its directors, officers, agents, employees, or affiliates is (i) an individual or entity (“Person”) currently the subject or target of any sanctions administered or enforced by the United States Government, including, without limitation, the U.S. Department of the Treasury’s Office of Foreign Assets Control, the United Nations Security Council, the European Union, Her Majesty’s Treasury, or other relevant sanctions authority (collectively, “Sanctions”) or (ii) located, organized or resident in a country or territory that is the subject of Sanctions. The Company will not, directly or indirectly, use the proceeds of the sale of the Notes, or lend, contribute or otherwise make available such proceeds to any subsidiaries, joint venture partners or other Person, to fund any activities of or business with any Person, or in any country or territory, that, at the time of such funding, is the subject of Sanctions or in any other manner that will result in a violation by any Person (including any Person participating in the transaction, whether as underwriter, advisor, investor or otherwise) of Sanctions.

(u) The Company is not an “ineligible issuer” and is a “well-known seasoned issuer,” in each case as defined under the Securities Act, in each case at the times specified in the Securities Act in connection with the offering of the Offered Securities.

2. Public Offering. The Company is advised by the Representative(s) that the Underwriters propose to make a public offering of their respective portions of the Offered Securities as soon after this Agreement has been entered into as in the Representative(s)’ judgment is advisable. The terms of the public offering of the Offered Securities are set forth in the Time of Sale Information and the Prospectus.

3. Purchase and Delivery. Payment for the Offered Securities shall be made in the funds and manner specified and at the time and place set forth in the Underwriting Agreement, upon delivery to the Representative(s) for the respective accounts of the several Underwriters of the Offered Securities, registered in such names and in such denominations as the Representative(s) shall request in writing not less than two full business days prior to the date of delivery. The Company shall not be obligated to deliver any Offered Securities except upon payment for all the Offered Securities to be purchased as herein provided.

The Company acknowledges and agrees that the Underwriters are acting solely in the capacity of an arm’s length contractual counterparty to the Company with respect to any offering of securities contemplated hereby (including in connection with determining the terms of the offering) and not as a financial advisor or a fiduciary to, or an agent of, the Company or any other person. Additionally, no such Underwriter is advising the Company or any other person as to any legal, tax, investment, accounting or regulatory matters in any jurisdiction. The Company shall consult with its own advisors concerning such matters and shall be responsible for making its own independent investigation and appraisal of the transactions contemplated hereby, and such Underwriters shall have no responsibility or liability to the Company with respect thereto. Any review by such Underwriters named in the Underwriting Agreement of the Company, the transactions contemplated thereby or other matters relating to such transactions will be performed solely for the benefit of the Underwriters and shall not be on behalf of the Company.

4. Conditions to Closing. The several obligations of the Underwriters hereunder are subject to the following conditions:

(a) Subsequent to the earlier of (x) the Time of Sale and (y) the execution and delivery of the Underwriting Agreement and prior to the Closing Date, there shall not have been any downgrading, nor any notice given of any intended or potential downgrading in the rating accorded any of the Company's securities by Standard & Poor's, a Division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. or Moody's Investors Service;

(b) there shall not have occurred any change in the condition, financial or otherwise, or in the earnings, business or operations, of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, from that set forth in the Time of Sale Information (excluding any amendment or supplement thereto) and the Prospectus, that is material and adverse and that makes it impracticable or inadvisable to market or deliver the Offered Securities on the terms and in the manner contemplated in the Prospectus; and

(c) the Representative(s) shall have received on the Closing Date a certificate, dated the Closing Date and signed by an executive officer of the Company, to the effect set forth in clause (b) above and to the effect that the representations and warranties of the Company contained in this Agreement are true and correct as of the Closing Date and that the Company has complied with all of the agreements and satisfied all of the conditions on its part to be performed or satisfied on or before the Closing Date.

The officer signing and delivering such certificate may rely upon the best of his knowledge as to proceedings threatened.

(d) The Representative(s) shall have received on the Closing Date an opinion of counsel of Covington & Burling LLP, dated the Closing Date, to the effect set forth in Exhibit A.

(e) The Representative(s) shall have received on the Closing Date an opinion of a deputy general counsel of the Company, dated the Closing Date, to the effect set forth in Exhibit B.

(f) The Representative(s) shall have received on the Closing Date opinions of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, special counsel for the Underwriters, or other counsel acceptable to the Representative(s), dated the Closing Date, to the effect set forth in Exhibits C-1 and C-2.

(g) The Representative(s) shall have received on the date of the Underwriting Agreement and on the Closing Date letters, dated as of such dates, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Representative(s), from the Company's independent auditors, containing statements and information of the type ordinarily included in accountants' "comfort letters" to underwriters with respect to the financial statements and certain financial information contained in or incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement, the Time of Sale Information and the Prospectus.

5. Covenants of the Company. In further consideration of the agreements of the Underwriters contained herein, the Company covenants as follows:

(a) The Company will file the final Prospectus with the Commission within the time periods specified by Rule 424(b) and Rule 430A, 430B or 430C under the Securities Act, as applicable, will file any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus (including the Term Sheet in the form of Schedule 4 hereto) to the extent required by Rule 433 under the Securities Act; and will file promptly all reports and any definitive proxy or information statements required to be filed by the Company with the Commission pursuant to Section 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act subsequent to the date of the Prospectus and for so long as the delivery of a prospectus (or, in lieu thereof, the notice referred to in Rule 173(a) under the Securities Act) is required in connection with the offering or sale of the Offered Securities; and the Company will furnish copies of the Prospectus and each Issuer Free Writing Prospectus (to the extent not previously delivered) to the Underwriters in New York City prior to 10:00 A.M., New York City time, on the business day next succeeding the date of this Agreement in such quantities as the Representative(s) may reasonably request. The Company will pay the registration fees for this offering within the time period required by Rule 456(b)(1)(i) under the Securities Act and in any event prior to the Closing Date.

(b) To furnish the Representative(s), without charge, a copy of the Registration Statement (including exhibits thereto) and for delivery to each other Underwriter a copy of the Registration Statement (without exhibits thereto) and, during the Prospectus Delivery Period (as defined below), as many copies of the Prospectus, any documents incorporated by reference therein and any supplements and amendments thereto or to the Registration Statement and each Issuer Free Writing Prospectus (if applicable) as the Representative(s) may reasonably request.

(c) During the Prospectus Delivery Period, before making, preparing, using, authorizing, approving, referring to or filing any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus, and before amending or supplementing the Registration Statement (other than an amendment relating exclusively to securities other than the Offered Securities) or the Prospectus with respect to the Offered Securities, to furnish to the Representative(s) a copy of each such proposed Issuer Free Writing Prospectus, amendment or supplement and, with respect to any such filing on or after the date hereof and prior to the Closing Date, not to make, prepare, use, authorize, approve, refer to or file any such Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or to file any such proposed amendment or supplement to which the Representative(s) reasonably object; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to filings required to be made with the Commission in order to comply with the Exchange Act so long as any such filing is provided to the Representatives a reasonable amount of time in advance of such filing.

(d) If, during such period after the first date of the public offering of the Offered Securities as in the opinion of counsel for the Underwriters the Prospectus (or, in lieu thereof, the notice referred to in Rule 173(a) under the Securities Act) is required by law to be delivered in connection with sales by an Underwriter or dealer (the "Prospectus Delivery Period"), any event shall occur or condition exists as a result of which it is necessary to amend or supplement the Prospectus, the Time of Sale Information or any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus in order that the same not include an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances existing when the Prospectus, the Time of Sale Information or any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus is delivered to a purchaser, not misleading, or if, in the opinion of the Company, it is necessary at any time to amend or supplement the Prospectus, the Time of Sale Information or any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus, as then amended or supplemented to comply with applicable law, forthwith to prepare and furnish, at its own expense, to the Underwriters either amendments or supplements to the Prospectus, the Time of Sale Information or any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus that will correct such untrue statement or omission or will effect such compliance.

(e) To endeavor to qualify, and to cooperate with the Underwriters in an endeavor to qualify, the Offered Securities for offer and sale under the securities or Blue Sky laws of such jurisdictions as the Representative(s) shall reasonably request and to pay all expenses (including reasonable fees and disbursements of one counsel for the Underwriters not to exceed $5,000) in connection with such qualification and in connection with (i) the determination of the eligibility of the Offered Securities for investment under the laws of such jurisdictions as the Representative(s) may designate and (ii) any review of the offering of the Offered Securities by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc.; provided, however that the Company need not qualify the Offered Securities for offer and sale in any jurisdiction where such qualification would, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, be unduly burdensome to the Company.

(f) To make generally available to the Company's security holders and to the Representative(s) as soon as reasonably practicable an earnings statement covering a twelve month period beginning on the first day of the first full fiscal quarter after the date of this Agreement, which earnings statement shall satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act.

(g) During the period beginning on the date of the Underwriting Agreement and continuing to and including the later of (1) the Closing Date and (2) the termination of this Underwriting Agreement, not to offer, sell, contract to sell or otherwise dispose of any debt securities of the Company or warrants to purchase debt securities of the Company substantially similar to the Offered Securities (other than (i) the Offered Securities and (ii) medium-term notes and commercial paper issued in the ordinary course of business), without the prior written consent of the Representative(s).

(h) To pay all costs, expenses, fees and taxes incident to the preparation, printing, authorization, issuance, sale and delivery of the Offered Securities; the costs incident to the preparation, printing and filing under the Securities Act of the Registration Statement, any Preliminary Prospectus, any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus, any Time of Sale Information and the Prospectus, including any amendments, supplements and exhibits thereto; the costs incident to the preparation, printing and filing of any document and any amendments and exhibits thereto required to be filed by the Company under the Exchange Act; the costs of distributing the Registration Statement as originally filed and each amendment and post-effective amendment thereof (including exhibits), any Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus, any Time of Sale Information and any documents incorporated by reference in any of the foregoing documents; the costs of any filings with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. in connection with the Offered Securities; fees paid to rating agencies in connection with the rating of any debt securities; the fees and expenses of qualifying the Offered Securities under the securities laws of the jurisdictions as provided in this Section and of preparing and printing a Blue Sky Memorandum, and a memorandum concerning the legality of Offered

Securities as an investment (including fees and expenses of one counsel to the Underwriters in connection therewith); and all other costs and expenses incident to the performance of the Company's obligations set forth herein; provided that, except as provided in this Section and in Section 10 hereof, the Underwriters shall pay their own costs and expenses, including the fees and expenses of their counsel and the expenses of advertising any offering of the Offered Securities made by the Underwriters.

(i) Record Retention. The Company will, pursuant to reasonable procedures developed in good faith, retain copies of each Issuer Free Writing Prospectus that is not filed with the Commission in accordance with Rule 433 under the Securities Act.

6. Certain Agreements of the Underwriters. Each Underwriter hereby represents and agrees that

(a) It has not and will not use, authorize use of, refer to, or participate in the planning for use of, any "free writing prospectus," as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act (which term includes use of any written information furnished to the Commission by the Company and not incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement and any press release issued by the Company) other than (i) a free writing prospectus that, solely a result of use by such underwriter, would not trigger an obligation to file such free writing prospectus with the Commission pursuant to Rule 433 under the Securities Act, (ii) any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus listed on Schedule 3 to the Underwriting Agreement or prepared pursuant to Section 1(c) or Section 5(c) above (including any electronic road show), or (iii) any free writing prospectus prepared by such underwriter and approved by the Company in advance in writing (each such free writing prospectus referred to in clauses (i) or (iii), an "Underwriter Free Writing Prospectus.") Notwithstanding the foregoing the Underwriters may use a term sheet substantially in the form of Schedule 4 to the Underwriting Agreement without the consent of the Company.

(b) It is not subject to any pending proceeding under Section 8A of the Securities Act with respect to the offering of the Offered Securities (and will promptly notify the Company if any such proceeding against it is initiated during the Prospectus Delivery Period).

7. Indemnification and Contribution. The Company agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each Underwriter and the directors, officers, employees and agents of each Underwriter and each person, if any, who controls such Underwriter within the meaning of either Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act from and against any and all losses, claims, damages and liabilities caused by (i) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Registration Statement, or caused by any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, or (ii) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto), any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or any Time of Sale Information, or caused by any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, in each case except insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities are caused by any such untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission based upon information relating to any Underwriter furnished to the Company in writing by such Underwriter through the Representative(s) expressly for use therein.

Each Underwriter agrees, severally and not jointly, to indemnify and hold harmless the Company, its directors, its officers who sign the Registration Statement and each person, if any, who controls the Company within the meaning of either Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act to the same extent as the foregoing indemnity from the Company to each Underwriter, but only with reference to information relating to such Underwriter furnished to the Company by such Underwriter in writing through the Representative(s) expressly for use in the Registration Statement, the Prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto, any Issuer Free Writing Prospectus or any Time of Sale Information.

In case any proceeding (including any governmental investigation) shall be instituted involving any person in respect of which indemnity may be sought pursuant to either of the two preceding paragraphs, such person (the “indemnified party”) shall promptly notify the person against whom such indemnity may be sought (the “indemnifying party”) in writing and the indemnifying party, upon request of the indemnified party, shall retain counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party to represent the indemnified party and any others entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Section 7 that the indemnifying party may designate in such proceeding and shall pay the fees and disbursements of such counsel reasonably incurred related to such proceeding. In any such proceeding, any indemnified party shall have the right to retain its own counsel, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of such indemnified party unless (i) the indemnifying party and the indemnified party shall have mutually agreed to the retention of such counsel or (ii) the named parties to any such proceeding (including any impleaded parties) include both the indemnifying party and the indemnified party and representation of both parties by the same counsel would be inappropriate due to actual or potential differing interests between them. It is understood that the indemnifying party shall not, in connection with any proceeding or related proceedings in the same jurisdiction, be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one separate firm (in addition to any local counsel) for all such indemnified parties and that all such fees and expenses shall be reimbursed as they are incurred. Such firm shall be designated in writing by the Representative(s), in the case of parties indemnified pursuant to the second preceding paragraph, and by the Company, in the case of parties indemnified pursuant to the first preceding paragraph. The indemnifying party shall not be liable for any settlement of any proceeding effected without its written consent, but if settled with such consent or if there be a final judgment for the plaintiff, the indemnifying party agrees to indemnify the indemnified party from and against any loss or liability by reason of such settlement or judgment. No indemnifying party shall, without the prior written consent of the indemnified party, effect any settlement of any pending or threatened proceeding in respect of which any indemnified party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such indemnified party, unless such settlement includes an unconditional release of such indemnified party from all liability on claims that are the subject matter of such proceeding.

If the indemnification provided for in the first or second paragraph in this Section 7 is unavailable to an indemnified party or insufficient in respect of any losses, claims, damages or liabilities referred to therein in connection with any offering of Offered Securities, then each indemnifying party under such paragraph, in lieu of indemnifying such indemnified party thereunder, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by the Company and the Underwriters from the offering of the Offered Securities or (ii) if the allocation provided by clause (i) above is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in clause (i) above but also the relative fault of the Company and of the Underwriters in connection with the statements or omissions that resulted in such losses, claims, damages or liabilities, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative benefits received by the Company and the Underwriters in connection with the offering of the Offered Securities shall be deemed to be in the same respective proportions as the total net proceeds from the offering of such Offered Securities (before deducting expenses) received by the Company bear to the total discounts and commissions received by the Underwriters, in each case as set forth in the table on the cover of the Prospectus Supplement, in respect thereof. The relative fault of the Company and of the Underwriters shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Company or by the Underwriters and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission.

The Company and the Underwriters agree that it would not be just or equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 7 were determined by pro rata allocation (even if the Underwriters were treated as one entity for such purpose) or by any other method of allocation that does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph. The amount paid or payable by an indemnified party as a result of the losses, claims, damages and liabilities referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph shall be deemed to include, subject to the limitations set forth above, any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with investigating or defending any such action or claim. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 7, no Underwriter shall be required to contribute any amount in excess of the amount by which the total price at which the Offered Securities underwritten by it and distributed to the public were offered to the public exceeds the amount of any damages that such Underwriter has otherwise been required to pay by reason of such untrue or allegedly untrue statement or omission or alleged omission. No person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. The Underwriters' respective obligations to contribute pursuant to this Section 7 are several in proportion to the respective principal amounts of the aggregate principal amount of Offered Securities purchased by each of such Underwriters under the Underwriting Agreement, and not joint. The remedies provided for in this Section 7 are not exclusive and shall not limit any rights or remedies which may otherwise be available to any indemnified party at law or in equity.

The indemnity and contribution provisions contained in this Section 7 and the representations and warranties of the Company contained herein shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of (i) any termination of this Agreement, (ii) any investigation made by or on behalf of any Underwriter or any person controlling any Underwriter or by or on behalf of the Company, its directors or officers or any person controlling the Company and (iii) acceptance of and payment for any of the Offered Securities.

8. Termination. This Agreement shall be subject to termination in the Representative(s)' absolute discretion, by notice given to the Company, if, after the earlier of the Time of Sale and the execution and delivery of the Underwriting Agreement and prior to the Closing Date, any of the following shall have occurred: (i) a suspension or material limitation in trading in securities generally on the New York Stock Exchange or on NYSE Alternext US; (ii) a suspension or material limitation in trading in the Company's securities on any exchange or in any over-the-counter market; (iii) a general moratorium on commercial banking activities declared by either Federal or New York State authorities or a material disruption in commercial banking or securities settlement or clearance services in the United States; (iv) the outbreak or escalation of hostilities involving the United States or the declaration by the United States of a national emergency or war or (v) the occurrence of any other calamity or crisis or any change in financial, political or economic conditions in the United States or elsewhere, if the effect of any such event specified in clause (iv) or (v) in the judgment of the Representative(s) makes it impracticable or inadvisable to proceed with the public offering or the delivery of the Offered Securities on the terms and in the manner contemplated in the Time of Sale Information and the Prospectus.

9. Defaulting Underwriters. If on the Closing Date any one or more of the Underwriters shall fail or refuse to purchase Offered Securities that it has or they have agreed to purchase on such date, and the aggregate amount of Offered Securities which such defaulting Underwriter or Underwriters agreed but failed or refused to purchase is not more than one-tenth of the aggregate amount of the Offered Securities to be purchased on such date, the other Underwriters shall be obligated severally in the proportions that the amount of Offered Securities set forth opposite their respective names above bears to the aggregate amount of Offered Securities set forth opposite the names of all such non-defaulting Underwriters, or in such other proportions as the Representative(s) may specify, to purchase the Offered Securities which such defaulting Underwriter or Underwriters agreed but failed or refused to purchase on such date; provided that in no event shall the amount of Offered Securities that any Underwriter has agreed to purchase pursuant to this Agreement be increased pursuant to this Section 9 by an amount in excess of one-ninth of such amount of Offered Securities without the written consent of such Underwriter. If on the Closing Date any Underwriter or Underwriters shall fail or refuse to purchase Offered Securities and the aggregate amount of Offered Securities with respect to which such default occurs is more than one-tenth of the aggregate amount of Offered Securities to be purchased on such date, and arrangements satisfactory to the Representative(s) and the Company for the purchase of such Offered Securities are not made within 36 hours after such default, this Agreement shall terminate without liability on the part of any non-defaulting Underwriter or the Company. In any such case either the Representative(s) or the Company shall have the right to postpone the Closing Date but in no event for longer than seven days, in order that the required changes, if any, in the Registration Statement and in the Prospectus or in any other documents or arrangements may be effected. Any action taken under this paragraph shall not relieve any defaulting Underwriter from liability in respect of any default of such Underwriter under this Agreement.

10. Payment of Expenses Upon Termination. If this Agreement shall be terminated by the Representative(s) because of any failure or refusal on the part of the Company to comply with the terms or to fulfill any of the conditions of this Agreement, or if for any reason the Company shall be unable to perform its obligations under this Agreement, the Company will reimburse the Underwriters for all out-of-pocket expenses (including the reasonable fees and disbursements of their counsel) reasonably incurred by such Underwriters in connection with the Offered Securities, and upon demand, the Company shall pay the full amount to the Representative(s). If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 8 hereof or pursuant to Section 9 hereof, the Company shall not be obligated to reimburse the Underwriters for such expenses.

11. Miscellaneous. The Underwriting Agreement may be signed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument.

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York.

12. Headings. The headings of the sections of this Agreement have been inserted for convenience of reference only and shall not be deemed a part of this Agreement.

FORM OF OPINION OF
COVINGTON & BURLING LLP

[Closing Date]

[Name[s] of Managing Underwriters]

As Representatives of the Underwriters
set forth on Schedule [] of the Underwriting Agreement

[c/o][name of lead manager]

[address of lead manager]

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as special counsel to Eli Lilly and Company, an Indiana corporation (the “Company”), in connection with the issuance and sale on the date hereof by the Company of $[amount] aggregate principal amount of its [designation of security] (the “Notes”) under the Indenture, dated as of February 1, 1991 (the “Indenture”), between the Company and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas (as successor to Citibank, N.A.), as trustee (the “Trustee”), and the purchase of the Notes by the several underwriters (the “Underwriters”) set forth on Schedule 1 of the Underwriting Agreement, dated _____, 20__ (the “Underwriting Agreement”), among the Company and _____, _____ and _____, as representatives of the Underwriters (the “Representatives”). This letter is delivered to you pursuant to Section 4(d) of the Standard Provisions (Debt Securities) attached to, and incorporated in, the Underwriting Agreement. Unless otherwise defined herein, capitalized terms used herein have the meanings provided in the Underwriting Agreement.

We have reviewed:

- (i) the Underwriting Agreement;
- (ii) the Company’s Registration Statement on Form S-3, Registration No. 333-_____, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) on _____, 20__ (the “Registration Statement”), registering, inter alia, the Notes for sale under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”);
- (iii) the Indenture;

- (iv) a copy of the Global Note representing the ____ Notes furnished by the Trustee;
- (v) a copy of the Global Note representing the ____ Notes furnished by the Trustee;
- (vi) the preliminary prospectus, consisting of the prospectus, dated _____, 20__ (the “Base Prospectus”), as supplemented by a preliminary prospectus supplement, dated _____, 20__, with respect to the offer and sale of the Notes, filed with the Commission on _____, 20__ pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act (the “Preliminary Prospectus”);
- (vii) the pricing term sheet, dated _____, 20__, relating to the offering of the Notes, filed with the Commission on _____, 20__ pursuant to Rule 433(d) under the Securities Act (together with the Preliminary Prospectus, the “General Disclosure Package”); and
- (viii) the final prospectus, consisting of the Base Prospectus, as supplemented by a final prospectus supplement, dated _____, 20__, with respect to the offer and sale of the Notes, filed with the Commission on _____, 20__ pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act (the “Prospectus”).

We also have reviewed such corporate records, certificates and other documents, and such questions of law, as we have deemed necessary or appropriate for the purposes of this opinion. The Underwriting Agreement, the Notes and the Indenture are collectively referred to as the “Documents.”

We have assumed that all signatures are genuine, that all documents submitted to us as originals are authentic and that all copies of documents submitted to us conform to the originals. We have assumed further that (i) the Company is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Indiana and has all legal right, power and authority and, except as set forth in our opinion in paragraph 10 below, has obtained all authorizations and approvals of governmental authorities necessary (A) to issue and sell the Notes and (B) to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Documents, (ii) the issuance and sale of the Notes and the execution, delivery and performance by the Company of its obligations under the Documents have been duly authorized by the Company, (iii) the Notes have been duly executed and delivered by the Company (except to the extent that the execution and delivery thereof is governed by the laws of the State of New York), (iv) the Underwriting Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company (except to the extent that the execution and delivery thereof is governed by the laws of the State of New York), and (v) the Indenture has been duly executed and delivered by the Company. We have assumed further that the Trustee and the Representatives have duly authorized, executed and delivered the Documents to which each is a party.

We have made no investigation for the purpose of verifying the assumptions set forth herein.

We have relied as to certain matters on information obtained from public officials, officers of the Company and other sources believed by us to be responsible, and on information regarding the Company contained in the Registration Statement and the Prospectus.

Our statement in paragraph 5 below as to stop orders and related proceedings is based solely on a review of the list of stop orders on the Commission's website at <http://www.sec.gov/litigation/stoporders.shtml> at ___ a.m. (New York City time) on the date hereof.

As used in this opinion, all references to the "Registration Statement," the "Preliminary Prospectus" and the "Prospectus" include all documents incorporated by reference therein, to the extent not modified or superseded by statements or other information in the Registration Statement, Preliminary Prospectus or Prospectus or in later filed material so incorporated. In addition, the qualification in paragraphs 5 and 9 of this letter "to the best of our knowledge" and "known to us" mean the actual knowledge, but not constructive or imputed knowledge, of the attorneys in our firm who have rendered legal services on behalf of our firm for the Company, without any representation or implication that any inquiry has been made with respect to such statements.

Based upon the foregoing, and subject to the qualifications set forth below, we are of the opinion that:

The Indenture is the valid and binding obligation of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium and other laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights and to general equity principles. The Indenture has been qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended.

The Company has duly executed and delivered the Notes (insofar as the validity of such execution and delivery is governed by the law of the State of New York).

The Company has duly executed and delivered the Underwriting Agreement (insofar as the validity of such execution and delivery is governed by the law of the State of New York).

When the Notes have been (a) duly authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in accordance with the Indenture and (b) issued and delivered by the Company against payment of the purchase price therefor in accordance with the Underwriting Agreement, the Notes will constitute valid and binding obligations of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with their terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium and other laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights and to general equity principles and will be entitled to the benefits of the Indenture.

The Registration Statement is effective under the Securities Act, and, to the best of our knowledge, no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement has been issued under the Securities Act and no proceedings for that purpose have been instituted or are pending or threatened by the Commission.

The statements in the General Disclosure Package and the Prospectus under the captions “Description of the Notes” and “Description of Debt Securities,” insofar as such statements constitute summaries of the documents referred to therein, are accurate in all material respects and fairly summarize such documents.

The statements in the General Disclosure Package and the Prospectus under the caption “Material U.S. Federal Tax Considerations,” insofar as such statements constitute summaries of the laws, regulations, legal matters, or legal documents referred to therein, are accurate in all material respects and fairly summarize the matters referred to therein.

The Registration Statement, on the date of the effectiveness of the Registration Statement as provided in Rule 430B(f)(2) under the Securities Act, and the Prospectus, as of the date thereof (excluding (i) the financial statements, including the notes thereto, and the other financial data included therein and (ii) the Statement of Eligibility on Form T-1 filed as Exhibit 25.1 to the Registration Statement, as to which we express no opinion) complied as to form in all material respects with the requirements of the Securities Act and the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder.

The issuance of the Notes and the execution and delivery of the Underwriting Agreement by the Company and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated thereby in accordance with the terms thereof do not violate any New York or federal statute, law, rule or regulation known to us to which the Company is subject.

No consent, approval, authorization or other action by or filing with any governmental agency or instrumentality of the State of New York or the United States of America is required on the part of the Company for the issuance of the Notes or the execution and delivery of the Underwriting Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby in accordance with the terms thereof, except (i) those already obtained or made and (ii) those required under federal and state securities laws.

The foregoing opinions are subject to the following qualifications:

- (a) We express no opinion as to:
 - (i) waivers of defenses, subrogation and related rights, rights to trial by jury, rights to object to venue, or other rights or benefits bestowed by operation of law;

- (ii) indemnification, contribution, or exculpation provisions, or provisions for the non-survival of representations, to the extent they purport to indemnify any party against, or release or limit any party's liability for, its own breach or failure to comply with statutory obligations, or to the extent such provisions are contrary to public policy;
- (iii) provisions for liquidated damages and penalties, penalty interest and interest on interest;
- (iv) provisions requiring amendments and waivers to be in writing;
- (v) provisions making notices effective even if not actually received; or
- (vi) provisions purporting to make a party's determination conclusive.

(b) We express no opinion as to any state securities or blue sky laws, rules or regulations or as to any federal or state anti-fraud statute, rule or regulation. To the extent we are passing upon the compliance of the Documents and the transactions contemplated thereby with federal securities laws, we have necessarily assumed the accuracy, completeness and fairness of the statements made or included in the General Disclosure Package and the Prospectus, except as set forth in our opinions in paragraphs 6 and 7 above.

(c) We express no opinion as to any legal requirements or restrictions applicable to the Underwriters or any investor.

(d) Our opinions in paragraphs 9 and 10 above are limited to laws and regulations that in our experience are normally applicable to transactions of the type contemplated by the Documents and do not extend to laws or regulations relating to, or to licenses, permits, approvals and filings necessary for, the conduct of the Company's business or to any environmental laws or regulations.

(e) Except as specifically set forth in paragraph 7 above, we express no opinion as to any tax laws or the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, or any comparable state law.

In addition, in accordance with our understanding with the Company as to the scope of our services in connection with the offering of the Notes, as special counsel to the Company, we reviewed the Registration Statement, the General Disclosure Package and the Prospectus and participated in discussions with your representatives and those of the Company, your counsel and the Company's accountants. On the basis of the information which was reviewed by us in the course of the performance of the services referred to above, considered in the light of our understanding of the applicable law and the experience we have gained through our practice under the federal securities laws, we confirm to you that nothing which came to our attention in the course of such review has caused us to believe that: (a) the Registration Statement, on the date of effectiveness of the Registration Statement as provided in Rule 430B(f)(2) of the Securities Act, contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, (b) the General Disclosure Package, as of the Time of Sale, contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; or (c) the Prospectus, as of its date or as of the date hereof, contained or contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

The limitations inherent in the independent verification of factual matters and the character of determinations involved in the registration process are such, however, that we do not assume any responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or fairness of the statements contained in the Registration Statement, General Disclosure Package or the Prospectus, except as specified in paragraphs 6 and 7 above. Also, we do not express any opinion or belief as to the financial statements, including the notes thereto, and the other financial data included or deemed incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement, the General Disclosure Package or the Prospectus or with respect to the Statement of Eligibility on Form T-1 filed as Exhibit 25.1 to the Registration Statement.

We are members of the bar of the District of Columbia and the State of New York. We do not express any opinion herein on any law other than the law of the State of New York and, to the extent expressly referred to herein, the federal law of the United States of America.

This letter is given to you as Representatives of the several Underwriters and is solely for the benefit of the Underwriters. It may not be disclosed to or relied upon any other person without our written consent.

Very truly yours,

FORM OF OPINION OF
DEPUTY GENERAL COUNSEL OF COMPANY

[Closing Date]

[Name[s] of Managing Underwriters]

As Representatives of the Underwriters
set forth on Schedule [] of the Underwriting Agreement

[c/o][name of lead manager]

[address of lead manager]

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This opinion is being rendered to the Underwriters (as defined below) pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement (the "Underwriting Agreement"), dated _____, 20__, between Eli Lilly and Company (the "Company") and the underwriters named therein (the "Underwriters"), pursuant to which the Underwriters severally agreed to purchase, and the Company agreed to sell to the Underwriters, $[amount] aggregate principal amount of the Company's [designation of security] (the "Notes"). I am the Secretary and Deputy General Counsel of the Company. This opinion is being rendered to the Underwriters and the Trustee (as defined below) at the request of the Company.

I have examined the corporate proceedings of the Company with respect to:

- (a) the organization of the Company pursuant to its Amended Articles of Incorporation;
- (b) the authorization of the execution by the Company of (1) the Indenture (the "Indenture"), dated as of February 1, 1991, between the Company and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as successor trustee (the "Trustee") to Citibank, N.A., the original trustee and (2) the Underwriting Agreement;
- (c) the authorization of the issuance of the Notes under the Indenture;

(d) the authorization of the sale of the Notes in accordance with the provisions of the Underwriting Agreement;

(e) the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-3 (File No. 333-_____) relating to the registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), of the offer and sale of certain debt securities (including the Notes) of the Company, as filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") on _____, 20__, including the exhibits thereto and the Incorporated Documents (as defined below) (such Registration Statement, at the time it became effective on _____, 20__, being hereinafter called the "Registration Statement");

(f) the Company's prospectus, dated _____, 20__, as filed by the Company with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Act on _____, 20__ (such prospectus, including the Incorporated Documents, being hereinafter called the "Base Prospectus");

(g) the Company's preliminary prospectus supplement, dated _____, 20__, as filed by the Company with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Act on _____, 20__ (such preliminary prospectus supplement, including the Base Prospectus attached thereto and the Incorporated Documents, being hereinafter called the "Preliminary Prospectus"); and

(h) the Company's final prospectus supplement, dated _____, 20__, as filed by the Company with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Act on _____, 20__ (such final prospectus supplement, including the Base Prospectus attached thereto and the Incorporated Documents, being hereinafter called the "Prospectus").

As used herein, the term "Incorporated Documents," when used with respect to the Registration Statement, the Base Prospectus, the Preliminary Prospectus or the Prospectus, as the case may be, means the documents filed by the Company with the Commission subsequent to December 31, 20__ and incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement, the Base Prospectus, the Preliminary Prospectus or the Prospectus, as the case may be, as of such date pursuant to Item 12 of Form S-3.

In preparing this opinion, I have examined and relied upon, among other things, such certificates of public officials and of officers and employees of the Company and such originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to my satisfaction, of corporate documents and records of the Company as I deemed necessary or appropriate for the purposes hereof.

On the basis of, and in reliance on, the foregoing and subject to the assumptions, exceptions, qualifications and limitations contained herein, I am of the opinion that:

1. The Company has been duly incorporated in, and is a validly existing corporation under the laws of, the State of Indiana and has the corporate power and authority to carry on its business which it is now conducting and to own or lease and operate its assets and properties, as described in the Prospectus.
2. No consent or approval by, notice to, or registration with any governmental authority of the State of Indiana (other than compliance with the blue sky or securities laws, as to which I give no opinion) is required on the part of the Company in connection with the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated by the Underwriting Agreement, the Indenture and the Notes.
3. The Indenture and the Underwriting Agreement have been duly and validly authorized, executed and delivered by the Company.
4. The issuance and sale of the Notes by the Company pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement have been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Company and the Notes have been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Company.
5. Neither the execution and filing of the Registration Statement or the Indenture by the Company, the execution, issuance and delivery of the Notes by the Company nor the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated by the Underwriting Agreement, nor compliance by the Company with any of the provisions thereof, will:
 - a. violate, or result in a breach of any provision of, or constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a default) under, or result in the termination of, or accelerate the performance required by, or subject any of the properties or assets of the Company or any of its significant subsidiaries (as defined in Rule 1-02(w) of Regulation S-X under the Act) to any encumbrance, easement or other restriction that would detract materially from its value or materially impair its use in the operation of the Company's business pursuant to any of the terms, conditions or provisions of, (i) the Amended Articles of Incorporation or the By-laws of the Company or the corresponding charter documents of its significant subsidiaries (as defined in Rule 1-02(w) of Regulation S-X under the Act) or (ii) to my knowledge, any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, deed of trust, license, agreement or other instrument or obligation known to me to which the Company or any of its significant subsidiaries (as defined in Rule 1-02(w) of Regulation S-X under the Act) is a party or by which they or any of their respective properties or assets may be bound or affected; or

- b. violate any statute, rule or regulation of the State of Indiana (other than Indiana securities or blue sky laws, as to which I give no opinion) or, to my knowledge, any order, writ, injunction or decree applicable to the Company, any of its significant subsidiaries (as defined in Rule 1-02(w) of Regulation S-X under the Act) or any of their respective properties or assets.
6. To the extent of matters which have been brought to my attention, after due inquiry, and upon the basis of information furnished to me, after due inquiry, I am aware of no action, suit or proceeding pending or threatened against or affecting the Company or any of its significant subsidiaries (as defined in Rule 1-02(w) of Regulation S-X under the Act) or any of their respective properties before or by any court, governmental official, commission, board or other administrative agency, which would have a material adverse effect on the consolidated results of operations or financial position of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, except as disclosed in the Registration Statement, the Preliminary Prospectus and the Prospectus.
7. The statements in Item 3 of Part I of the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 20__ under the caption "Legal Proceedings" and in Item 15 of Part II of the Registration Statement, in each case insofar as such statements describe the provisions of laws or legal proceedings, fairly summarize in all material respects the matters referred to therein.

I am a member of the bar of the State of Indiana, and I express no opinion as to matters governed by the laws of any other jurisdiction (other than the federal laws of the United States of America), except that I express no opinion with respect to federal securities laws or state securities or blue sky laws.

I hereby consent that Covington & Burling LLP and Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP may rely upon this opinion as if it were addressed to them.

The foregoing opinion is rendered as of the date hereof, and I assume no obligation to update such opinion to reflect any facts or circumstances which may hereafter come to my attention or any changes in the law which may hereafter occur.

The opinions expressed in this letter are solely for your benefit in connection with the issuance of the Notes and may not be used, disseminated or relied upon in any manner by you for any other purpose, or by any other person or entity for any purpose, without my prior written consent.

Yours truly,

James B. Lootens
Corporate Secretary and Deputy General Counsel

FORM OF OPINION OF
DAVIS POLK & WARDWELL LLP

[Closing Date]

[Name[s] of Managing Underwriters]
as Representative[s] of the several Underwriters named in [Schedule 1 to] the Underwriting Agreement referred to below

[c/o][name of lead manager]
[address of lead manager]

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as counsel for you and the other several Underwriters named in Schedule 1 (the “Underwriters”) to the Underwriting Agreement dated _____, 20__ (the “Underwriting Agreement”), including the Standard Provisions (Debt Securities) incorporated by reference therein dated _____, 20__, with Eli Lilly and Company, an Indiana corporation (the “Company”), under which you and such other Underwriters have severally agreed to purchase from the Company $[amount] aggregate principal amount of its [designation of security] (the “Notes”). The Notes are to be issued pursuant to the provisions of the Indenture dated as of February 1, 1991 (the “Indenture”) between the Company and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as successor trustee (the “Trustee”) to Citibank N.A. This opinion is being rendered to you pursuant to Section 4(f) of the Underwriting Agreement.

We have examined originals or copies of such documents, corporate records, certificates of public officials and other instruments as we have deemed necessary or advisable for the purpose of rendering this opinion.

We have also reviewed the Company’s registration statement on Form S-3 (Registration No. 333-_____) [and Amendment(s) No. ____ thereto] (including the documents incorporated by reference therein (the “Incorporated Documents”)) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) pursuant to the provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Act”), relating to the registration of securities (the “Shelf Securities”) to be issued from time to time by the Company and have participated in the preparation of the preliminary prospectus supplement dated _____, 20__ (the “Preliminary Prospectus Supplement”) relating to the Securities, [list free writing prospectuses, if any, that form part of the Disclosure Package to be covered by the opinion] [and] the prospectus supplement dated _____, 20__ relating to the Securities (the “Prospectus Supplement”). The registration statement became effective under the Act and the Indenture qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended (the “Trust Indenture Act”), upon the filing of the registration statement with the Commission on date of filing pursuant to Rule 462(e). The registration statement [as amended] at the date of the Underwriting Agreement, including the Incorporated Documents and the information deemed to be part of the registration statement at the time of effectiveness pursuant to Rule 430B under the Act, is hereinafter referred to as the “Registration Statement,” and the related prospectus (including the Incorporated Documents) dated _____, 20__ relating to the Shelf Securities is hereinafter referred to as the “Basic Prospectus.” The Basic Prospectus, as supplemented by [the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement], together with the free writing prospectus[es] set forth in Schedule 3 to the Underwriting Agreement for the Securities are hereinafter called the “Disclosure Package.” The Basic Prospectus, as supplemented by the Prospectus Supplement, in the form first used to confirm sales of the Securities (or in the form first made available by the Company to the Underwriters to meet requests of purchasers of the Securities under Rule 173 under the Act), is hereinafter referred to as the “Prospectus.”

In rendering the opinions expressed herein, we have, without independent inquiry or investigation, assumed that (i) all documents submitted to us as originals are authentic and complete, (ii) all documents submitted to us as copies conform to authentic, complete originals, (iii) all documents filed with or submitted to the Commission through its Electronic Data Gathering, Analysis and Retrieval (“EDGAR”) system (except for required EDGAR formatting changes) conform to the versions of such documents reviewed by us prior to such formatting, (iv) all signatures on all documents that we reviewed are genuine, (v) all natural persons executing documents had and have the legal capacity to do so, (vi) all statements in certificates of public officials and officers of the Company that we reviewed were and are accurate and (vii) all representations made by the Company as to matters of fact in the documents that we reviewed were and are accurate.

Capitalized terms used but not defined herein are used as defined in the Underwriting Agreement.

Based upon the foregoing, and subject to the additional assumptions and qualifications set forth below, we are of the opinion that:

(1) Assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by the Company, the Indenture is a valid and binding agreement of the Company, enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally, concepts of reasonableness and equitable principles of general applicability, provided that we express no opinion as to [(x)] the enforceability of any waiver of rights under any usury or stay law [or (y) the validity, legally binding effect or enforceability of any provision that permits holders to collect any portion of stated principal amount upon acceleration of the Notes to the extent determined to constitute unearned interest].

(2) Assuming the due authorization of the Notes by the Company, the Notes, when executed and authenticated in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture and delivered to and paid for by the Underwriters pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement, will be valid and binding obligations of the Company, enforceable in accordance with their terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally, concepts of reasonableness and equitable principles of general applicability, and will be entitled to the benefits of the Indenture, provided that we express no opinion as to [(x)] the enforceability of any waiver of rights under any usury or stay law or [(y) the validity, legally binding effect or enforceability of any provision that permits holders to collect any portion of stated principal amount upon acceleration of the Notes to the extent determined to constitute unearned interest].

We have considered the statements included in the Disclosure Package under the captions "[Description of the Notes,]" "[Underwriting,]" "[Description of Debt Securities]" and "[Plan of Distribution]" and in the Prospectus under the captions "[Description of the Notes,]" "[Underwriting,]" "[Description of Debt Securities]" and "[Plan of Distribution]" insofar as they summarize provisions of the Indenture, the Notes and the Underwriting Agreement. In our opinion, such statements fairly summarize these provisions in all material respects.

In rendering the opinions in paragraphs (1) and (2) above, we have assumed that each party to the Indenture, the Underwriting Agreement and the Notes (the "Documents") has been duly incorporated and is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization. In addition, we have assumed that (i) the execution, delivery and performance by each party thereto of each Document to which it is a party, (a) are within its corporate powers, (b) do not contravene, or constitute a default under, the certificate of incorporation or bylaws or other constitutive documents of such party, (c) require no action by or in respect of, or filing with, any governmental body, agency or official and (d) do not contravene, or constitute a default under, any provision of applicable law or regulation or any judgment, injunction, order or decree or any agreement or other instrument binding upon such party and (ii) each Document (other than the Underwriting Agreement) is a valid, binding and enforceable agreement of each party thereto, (other than as expressly covered above in respect of the Company).

We are members of the Bar of the State of New York and the foregoing opinion is limited to the laws of the State of New York and the federal laws of the United States of America. [Insofar as the foregoing opinion involves matters governed by the laws of Indiana, we have relied, without independent investigation, on the opinion of [name of counsel for the Company], counsel for the Company, delivered to you today pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement.]

This opinion is rendered solely to you and the other several Underwriters in connection with the Underwriting Agreement. This opinion may not be relied upon by you for any other purpose or relied upon by any other person (including any person acquiring Securities from the several Underwriters) or furnished to any other person without our prior written consent.

Very truly yours,

FORM OF 10b-5 LETTER OF
DAVIS POLK & WARDWELL LLP

[Closing Date]

[Name[s] of Managing Underwriters]
as Representative[s] of the several Underwriters named in [Schedule 1 to] the Underwriting Agreement referred to below

[c/o][name of lead manager]
[address of lead manager]

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as counsel for you and the other several Underwriters named in Schedule 1 (the “Underwriters”) to the Underwriting Agreement dated _____, 20__ (the “Underwriting Agreement”), including the Standard Provisions (Debt Securities) incorporated by reference therein dated _____, 20__, with Eli Lilly and Company, an Indiana corporation (the “Company”), under which you and such other Underwriters have severally agreed to purchase from the Company $[amount] aggregate principal amount of its [designation of security] (the “Notes”). This opinion is being rendered to you pursuant to Section 4(f) of the Underwriting Agreement.

We have reviewed the Company’s registration statement on Form S-3 (Registration No. 333-_____) [and Amendment Nos. ____ thereto] (including the documents incorporated by reference therein (the “Incorporated Documents”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) pursuant to the provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Act”), relating to the registration of securities (the “Shelf Securities”) to be issued from time to time by the Company and have participated in the preparation of [the preliminary prospectus supplement dated _____, 20__ (the “Preliminary Prospectus Supplement”) relating to the Securities,] [list free writing prospectuses, if any, that form part of the Disclosure Package to be covered by the opinion] [and] the prospectus supplement dated _____, 20__ relating to the Securities (the “Prospectus Supplement”). The registration statement [as amended] at the date of the Underwriting Agreement, including the Incorporated Documents and the information deemed to be part of the registration statement at the time of effectiveness pursuant to Rule 430B under the Act, is hereinafter referred to as the “Registration Statement,” and the related prospectus (including the Incorporated Documents) dated _____, 20__ relating to the Shelf Securities is hereinafter referred to as the “Basic Prospectus.” The Basic Prospectus, as supplemented by [the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement], together with the free writing prospectus[es] set forth in Schedule 3 to the Underwriting Agreement for the Securities are hereinafter called the “Disclosure Package.” The Basic Prospectus, as supplemented by the Prospectus Supplement, in the form first used to confirm sales of the Securities (or in the form first made available by the Company to the Underwriters to meet requests of purchasers of the Securities under Rule 173 under the Act), is hereinafter referred to as the “Prospectus.”

We have, without independent inquiry or investigation, assumed that all documents filed with or submitted to the Commission through its Electronic Data Gathering, Analysis and Retrieval (“EDGAR”) system (except for required EDGAR formatting changes) conform to the versions of such documents reviewed by us prior to such formatting.

The primary purpose of our professional engagement was not to establish or confirm factual matters or financial, accounting or quantitative information. Furthermore, many determinations involved in the preparation of the Registration Statement, the Disclosure Package and the Prospectus are of a wholly or partially non-legal character or relate to legal matters outside the scope of our opinion separately delivered to you today in respect of certain matters under the laws of the State of New York and the federal laws of the United States of America. As a result, we are not passing upon, and do not assume any responsibility for, the accuracy, completeness or fairness of the statements contained in the Registration Statement, the Disclosure Package or the Prospectus, and we have not ourselves checked the accuracy, completeness or fairness of, or otherwise verified, the information furnished in such documents (except to the extent expressly set forth in our opinion letter separately delivered to you today as to statements included in the Disclosure Package under the captions “[Description of the Notes,]” “[Underwriting,]” “[Description of Debt Securities]” and “[Plan of Distribution]” and in the Prospectus under the captions “[Description of the Notes,]” “[Underwriting,]” “[Description of Debt Securities]” and “[Plan of Distribution]”). The "Regular Record Date" for each series of Notes shall be May 5 and November 5 (whether or not a Business Day (as defined in each series of Notes)).

(vii) The Notes shall be denominated, and amounts due thereon shall be payable, solely in Dollars.

(viii) The Company shall at all times maintain a Place of Payment for the Notes in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York. The Company initially appoints Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, with a corporate trust office at 1 Columbus Circle, 4th Floor, New York, New York 10019, for such purpose.

(ix) The Trustee is hereby appointed as the initial Paying Agent and the initial Security Registrar with respect to each series of Notes.

(xi) Each series of Notes shall be redeemable, in whole or in part, at the option of the Company at any time at the redemption prices determined in accordance with, and upon the terms and the conditions set forth in, the applicable series of Notes and the Indenture. In addition, the 2029 Notes, 2031 Notes, 2033 Notes and 2036 Notes are subject to the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption (as defined in each of the applicable series of Notes) and the terms specified in the applicable series of Notes shall govern such redemption. The Global Securities representing the Notes may be exchanged for definitive Notes only in the circumstances set forth in the seventh or eighth paragraphs of Section 3.05 of the Indenture and in accordance with Section 3.05 of the Indenture.

(xiii) The Notes shall be issued in minimum denominations of two thousand Dollars ($2,000) and any integral multiples of one thousand Dollars ($1,000) in excess thereof.

(xiv) Section 12.02 of the Indenture shall be applicable to the Notes.

(xv) The Notes shall rank equally and pari passu with all other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of the Company.

(xvi) The Company shall not pay any additional amounts on the Notes to any Person, including any Holder who is not a United States Person, in respect of any tax, assessment or governmental charge withheld or deducted.

(xvii) For purposes of the Notes, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

(1) “Discharged” means that the Company will be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire indebtedness represented by, and obligations under, the Securities of the series as to which Section 12.02 of the Indenture is specified as applicable and to have satisfied all the obligations under the Indenture relating to the Securities of such series (and the Trustee, at the expense of the Company, will execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except (A) the rights of Holders thereof to receive, from the trust fund described in Section 12.02(q)(1) of the Indenture, payment of the principal of and the interest, if any, on such Securities when such payments are due, (B) the Company’s obligations with respect to such Securities under Sections 3.05 and 3.06 (insofar as applicable to Securities of such series), 12.02 and 5.02 of the Indenture and the Company’s obligations to the Trustee under Section 7.05 of the Indenture, (C) the rights of Holders of Securities of any series with respect to the currency or currency units in which they are to receive payments of principal, premium, if any, and, interest and (D) the rights, powers, trusts, duties and immunities of the Trustee hereunder, will survive such discharge. The Company will reimburse the trust fund for any loss suffered by it as a result of any tax, fee or other charge imposed on or assessed against deposited U.S. Government Obligations or Foreign Government Securities, as the case may be, or any principal or interest paid on such obligations, and, subject to the provisions of Section 7.05 of the Indenture, will indemnify the Trustee against any claims made against the Trustee in connection with any such loss.

(2) “Interest Payment Date,” when used with respect to any Security, means the Stated Maturity of an installment of interest on such Security.

(3) “Special Record Date” for the payment of any Defaulted Interest on the Registered Security of any series means a date fixed by the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.07 of the Indenture.

(xviii) Each of the undersigned has read and understands the provisions of the Indenture setting forth the covenants and conditions relating to the authentication and delivery by the Trustee of the Notes, and in respect of compliance with which this certificate is being delivered, and all definitions in the Indenture relating thereto.

(xix) Each of the undersigned has examined the Board Resolutions adopted as of or prior to the date hereof relating to the issuance, execution, authentication, delivery and dating of the Notes, and such agreements, certificates of public officials, certificates of officers or other representatives of the Company and such other documents, certificates and corporate or other records as he or she has deemed necessary or appropriate as a basis for the opinion hereinafter expressed.

(xx) The examinations or investigations described in paragraphs (xviii) and (xix) are sufficient to enable each of the undersigned to express an informed opinion as to whether or not the conditions precedent referred to above have been complied with in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

(xxi) In the opinion of each of the undersigned, all covenants and conditions precedent to the issuance by the Company and the authentication and delivery by the Trustee of the Notes, as requested in the order, dated as of the date hereof, pursuant to which the Company has requested that the Trustee authenticate and deliver the Notes, have been complied with in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Indenture.

[REVERSE OF NOTE]

This Note is one of a duly authorized issue of a series of debt securities (the “Securities”) of the Company, designated as its 4.150% Notes due 2029 (the “Notes”). The Securities, including the Notes, are all issued or to be issued under and pursuant to the Indenture, to which Indenture, and all Board Resolutions and Officers’ Certificates as provided therein, reference is hereby made for a description of the rights, limitation of rights, obligations, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes, and the terms upon which the Notes are, and are to be, authenticated and delivered. The Notes are initially limited to Seven Hundred and Fifty Million Dollars ($750,000,000) in aggregate principal amount; provided, however, that the Company may at any time issue additional Securities under the Indenture in unlimited amounts having the same terms as the Notes other than the date of original issuance and the first Interest Payment Date applicable thereto, and such Securities shall be treated as a single series with the Notes for all purposes under the Indenture.

This Note shall constitute part of the Company’s unsecured and unsubordinated obligations and shall rank equally in right of payment with all of the Company’s other existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. This Note shall be issuable in fully registered form only, in minimum denominations of two thousand Dollars ($2,000) and any integral multiples of one thousand Dollars ($1,000) in excess of that amount.

In case an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing with respect to this Note, the principal hereof may be declared due and payable, and upon such declaration shall become due and payable, in the manner, with the effect, and subject to the conditions provided in the Indenture. The Indenture permits the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding to, on behalf of the Holders of all of the Notes and in the manner and subject to the provisions of the Indenture, waive certain past defaults and rescind and annul such past declarations and their consequences under the Indenture.

The Indenture contains provisions permitting the Company and the Trustee, with consent of the Holders of not less than a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding, evidenced as provided in the Indenture, to execute supplemental indentures for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of the Indenture or of any supplemental indenture with respect to the Notes or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture shall (i) extend the fixed maturity, or the earlier optional date of maturity, if any, of any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the premium thereon, if any, or reduce the rate or extend the time of payment of interest, if any, thereon or make the principal thereof or premium, if any, or interest, if any, thereon payable in any currency other than as provided pursuant to the Indenture or this Note, without the consent of the Holders of each Note so affected; or (ii) reduce the aforesaid percentage of the Notes, the Holders of which are required to consent to any such supplemental indenture, without the consent of the Holders of all Notes then outstanding.

The Notes shall not have the benefit of any sinking fund and, except as set forth below under “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption,” the Notes shall not be subject to any mandatory redemption provision.

Optional Redemption

Upon such notice as specified below and in accordance with the Indenture and the terms of this Note, the Notes are subject to redemption at the election of the Company, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, on a date fixed for redemption (a “Redemption Date”) prior to the Par Call Date and at a “redemption price” (expressed as a percentage of principal amount and rounded to three decimal places) equal to the greater of:

(1) (a) the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on the Notes to be redeemed discounted to the Redemption Date (assuming the Notes to be redeemed matured on the Par Call Date) on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at the Treasury Rate, plus 5 basis points, less (b) interest accrued to the Redemption Date, and

(2) 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed on such Redemption Date, plus, in each case, accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the Redemption Date.

In addition, on or after the Par Call Date, the Company may redeem the Notes, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the Redemption Date.

“Par Call Date” means April 20, 2029.

“Treasury Rate” means, with respect to any Redemption Date prior to the Par Call Date, the yield determined by the Company in accordance with the following two paragraphs.

The Treasury Rate shall be determined by the Company after 4:15 p.m., New York City time (or after such time as yields on U.S. government securities are posted daily by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System), on the third business day preceding the Redemption Date based upon the yield or yields for the most recent day that appear after such time on such day in the most recent statistical release published by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System designated as “Selected Interest Rates (Daily)—H.15” (or any successor designation or publication) (“H.15”) under the caption “U.S. government securities—Treasury constant maturities—Nominal” (or any successor caption or heading) (“H.15 TCM”). In determining the Treasury Rate, the Company shall select, as applicable: (1) the yield for the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 exactly equal to the period from the Redemption Date to the Par Call Date (the “Remaining Life”); or (2) if there is no such Treasury constant maturity on H.15 exactly equal to the Remaining Life, the two yields—one yield corresponding to the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 immediately shorter than and one yield corresponding to the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 immediately longer than the Remaining Life—and shall interpolate to the Par Call Date on a straight-line basis (using the actual number of days) using such yields and rounding the result to three decimal places; or (3) if there is no such Treasury constant maturity on H.15 shorter than or longer than the Remaining Life, the yield for the single Treasury constant maturity on H.15 closest to the Remaining Life. For purposes of this paragraph, the applicable Treasury constant maturity or maturities on H.15 shall be deemed to have a maturity date equal to the relevant number of months or years, as applicable, of such Treasury constant maturity from the Redemption Date.

If on the third business day preceding the Redemption Date H.15 TCM is no longer published, the Company shall calculate the Treasury Rate based on the rate per annum equal to the semi-annual equivalent yield to maturity at 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on the second business day preceding such Redemption Date of the United States Treasury security maturing on, or with a maturity that is closest to, the Par Call Date. If there is no United States Treasury security maturing on the Par Call Date but there are two or more United States Treasury securities with a maturity date equally distant from the Par Call Date, one with a maturity date preceding the Par Call Date and one with a maturity date following the Par Call Date, the Company shall select the United States Treasury security with a maturity date preceding the Par Call Date. If there are two or more United States Treasury securities maturing on the Par Call Date or two or more United States Treasury securities meeting the criteria of the preceding sentence, the Company shall select from among these two or more United States Treasury securities the United States Treasury security that is trading closest to par based upon the average of the bid and asked prices for such United States Treasury securities at 11:00 a.m., New York City time. In determining the Treasury Rate in accordance with the terms of this paragraph, the semi-annual yield to maturity of the applicable United States Treasury security shall be based upon the average of the bid and asked prices (expressed as a percentage of principal amount) at 11:00 a.m., New York City time, of such United States Treasury security, and rounded to three decimal places.

The Company's actions and determinations in determining the redemption price shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, installments of interest on the Notes that are due and payable on each Interest Payment Date falling on or prior to a Redemption Date shall be payable on such Interest Payment Date to the Holder(s) as of the close of business on the Regular Record Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date.

Notice of any redemption will be mailed (or otherwise transmitted in accordance with the Depository's procedures) at least 10 days but not more than 60 days before the Redemption Date to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed. Each notice of redemption shall (i) specify the Redemption Date and the redemption price at which the Notes are to be redeemed, (ii) state the applicable conditions precedent to such redemption, if any, as described below, and (iii) state that payment of the redemption price of the Notes to be redeemed, together with interest accrued thereon to the Redemption Date (except that if such Redemption Date is an Interest Payment Date, such interest due on such date shall be payable to the Holder on the Regular Record Date for such Interest Payment Date), shall be made at the office or agency to be maintained by the Company in accordance with Section 5.02 of the Indenture (or, if desired by the Company, at the principal office of the Trustee) upon presentation and surrender of such Notes and that from and after said date any interest thereon shall cease to accrue.

Any notice of redemption may, at the Company's discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, including completion of a corporate transaction. In such event, the related notice of redemption shall describe each such condition and, if applicable, shall state that, at the Company's discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time (including more than 60 days after the notice of redemption was given) as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied (or waived by the Company in its sole discretion), or such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied or waived by the Redemption Date, or by the Redemption Date so delayed. If any such redemption has been rescinded or delayed, the Company shall provide written notice to the Trustee prior to the close of business two Business Days prior to the Redemption Date and shall deliver a written request to the Trustee to promptly provide such notice to each Holder, and, upon receipt, the Trustee shall provide such notice to each Holder. Subject to any delay in the Redemption Date or rescission of the notice of redemption as described above, once notice of redemption is mailed, the Notes called for redemption shall become due and payable on the applicable Redemption Date at the applicable redemption price.

If fewer than all of the Notes are to be redeemed, selection of the Notes to be redeemed shall be made pro rata, by lot or by such other method as the Trustee in its sole discretion deems appropriate and fair. No Notes of a principal amount of $2,000 or less shall be redeemed in part. If any Note is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption that relates to the Note shall state the portion of the principal amount of the Note to be redeemed. Except in the case of Global Securities, a new Note in a principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of the Note shall be issued in the name of the Holder of the Note upon surrender for cancellation of the original Note. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for so long as the Notes are held by the Depository, the redemption of the Notes shall be done in accordance with the policies and procedures of the Depository. Before any Redemption Date, the Company shall deposit with a Paying Agent (or the Trustee) money sufficient to pay the redemption price of the Notes to be redeemed on such date.

Unless the Company defaults in payment of the redemption price therefor, on and after the Redemption Date, interest shall cease to accrue on the Notes or any portions of the Notes called for redemption.

Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption

In the event that (x) the Centessa Acquisition is not consummated on or prior to the date that is five (5) Business Days after the later of (i) March 31, 2027 or (ii) any later date as the parties to the Centessa Agreement may agree as the “Outside Date” thereunder or (y) the Company notifies the Trustee in writing that the Company will not pursue the consummation of the Centessa Acquisition (any such event being a “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Event”), the Company will be required to redeem the Notes then outstanding (such redemption, the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption”) at a redemption price equal to 101% of the principal amount of such Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date (as defined below) (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Price”).

In the event that the Company becomes obligated to redeem the Notes pursuant to the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption, the Company will promptly, and in any event not more than ten (10) Business Days after the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Event, deliver written notice (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice”) to each registered Holder of the Notes and the Trustee of the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption and the date upon which the Notes will be redeemed (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date,” which date shall be no earlier than five (5) days and no later than thirty (30) days following the date of such notice, unless some longer minimum period may be required by DTC (or any successor depository)). The Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice will, in accordance with the Trustee's (if applicable) and DTC's (or any successor depository's) procedures, be mailed, electronically delivered, or otherwise transmitted, according to the procedures of DTC (or any successor depository) to each registered Holder of the Notes. Any Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice may be given by the Company or may be given, at the Company's written direction, by the Trustee in the Company's name and at the Company's expense.

Unless the Company defaults in payment of the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Price of the Notes, on and after such Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date, interest will cease to accrue on the Notes.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, installments of interest on the Notes that are due and payable on an Interest Payment Date falling on or prior to the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date will be payable on such Interest Payment Date to the registered Holders of the Notes as of the close of business on the relevant record date in accordance with the Notes and the Indenture.

Upon the consummation of the Centessa Acquisition, the foregoing provisions regarding the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption will cease to apply. For purposes of the foregoing, the Centessa Acquisition will be deemed consummated if the closing under the Centessa Agreement occurs, including after giving effect to any amendments, modifications or waivers to the Centessa Agreement.

“Centessa” means Centessa Pharmaceuticals plc, a public limited company registered in England and Wales.

“Centessa Acquisition” means the acquisition by Eli Lilly and Company (including through the Purchaser (as defined below)) of Centessa and its subsidiaries pursuant to the Centessa Agreement.

General

The Notes are subject to the defeasance provisions set forth in Section 12.02 of the Indenture.

The Company shall not pay any additional amounts on any of the Notes to any person, including any Holder who is not a United States person in respect of any tax, assessment or governmental charge withheld or deducted.

No reference herein to the Indenture and no provision of this Note or of the Indenture or of any Board Resolution shall alter or impair the obligation of the Company, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on this Note at the times and places and at the rate and in the coin and currency herein prescribed.

This Note is transferable by the Holder hereof in person or by his or her attorney duly authorized in writing on the books of the Company at the office or agency to be maintained by the Company for that purpose in the City of New York, but only in the manner, subject to the limitations and upon payment of any tax or governmental charge for which the Company may require reimbursement as provided in the Indenture, and upon surrender and cancellation of this Note. Upon any registration of transfer, a new registered Note or Notes, of authorized denomination or authorized denominations and like tenor and terms, and in the same aggregate principal amount, shall be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor.

The Company, the Trustee, any Paying Agent and any Security Registrar may deem and treat the Holder hereof as the absolute owner of this Note (whether or not this Note shall be overdue and notwithstanding any notations of ownership or other writing hereon made by anyone other than the Security Registrar) for the purpose of receiving payment of or on account of the principal hereof and premium, if any, and interest due hereon as herein provided and for all other purposes, and none of the Company, the Trustee, any Paying Agent or any Security Registrar shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or premium, if any, or interest on this Note, or for any claim based hereon, or otherwise in respect hereof, or based on or in respect of the Indenture or any supplemental indenture thereto or any Board Resolution, against any Person other than the Company or against any incorporator, stockholder, officer or director, past, present or future, as such, of the Company or any other Person, whether by virtue of any constitution, statute or rule of law, or by the enforcement of any assessment or penalty or otherwise, all such liability being, by the acceptance hereof and as part of the consideration for the issuance of this Note, expressly waived and released.

This Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

[REVERSE OF NOTE]

This Note is one of a duly authorized issue of a series of debt securities (the “Securities”) of the Company, designated as its 4.375% Notes due 2031 (the “Notes”). The Securities, including the Notes, are all issued or to be issued under and pursuant to the Indenture, to which Indenture, and all Board Resolutions and Officers’ Certificates as provided therein, reference is hereby made for a description of the rights, limitation of rights, obligations, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes, and the terms upon which the Notes are, and are to be, authenticated and delivered. The Notes are initially limited to One Billion Five Hundred Million Dollars ($1,500,000,000) in aggregate principal amount; provided, however, that the Company may at any time issue additional Securities under the Indenture in unlimited amounts having the same terms as the Notes other than the date of original issuance and the first Interest Payment Date applicable thereto, and such Securities shall be treated as a single series with the Notes for all purposes under the Indenture.

This Note shall constitute part of the Company’s unsecured and unsubordinated obligations and shall rank equally in right of payment with all of the Company’s other existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. This Note shall be issuable in fully registered form only, in minimum denominations of two thousand Dollars ($2,000) and any integral multiples of one thousand Dollars ($1,000) in excess of that amount.

In case an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing with respect to this Note, the principal hereof may be declared due and payable, and upon such declaration shall become due and payable, in the manner, with the effect, and subject to the conditions provided in the Indenture. The Indenture permits the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding to, on behalf of the Holders of all of the Notes and in the manner and subject to the provisions of the Indenture, waive certain past defaults and rescind and annul such past declarations and their consequences under the Indenture.

The Indenture contains provisions permitting the Company and the Trustee, with consent of the Holders of not less than a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding, evidenced as provided in the Indenture, to execute supplemental indentures for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of the Indenture or of any supplemental indenture with respect to the Notes or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture shall (i) extend the fixed maturity, or the earlier optional date of maturity, if any, of any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the premium thereon, if any, or reduce the rate or extend the time of payment of interest, if any, thereon or make the principal thereof or premium, if any, or interest, if any, thereon payable in any currency other than as provided pursuant to the Indenture or this Note, without the consent of the Holders of each Note so affected; or (ii) reduce the aforesaid percentage of the Notes, the Holders of which are required to consent to any such supplemental indenture, without the consent of the Holders of all Notes then outstanding.

The Notes shall not have the benefit of any sinking fund and, except as set forth below under “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption,” the Notes shall not be subject to any mandatory redemption provision.

Optional Redemption

Upon such notice as specified below and in accordance with the Indenture and the terms of this Note, the Notes are subject to redemption at the election of the Company, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, on a date fixed for redemption (a “Redemption Date”) prior to the Par Call Date and at a “redemption price” (expressed as a percentage of principal amount and rounded to three decimal places) equal to the greater of:

(1) (a) the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on the Notes to be redeemed discounted to the Redemption Date (assuming the Notes to be redeemed matured on the Par Call Date) on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at the Treasury Rate, plus 10 basis points, less (b) interest accrued to the Redemption Date, and

(2) 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed on such Redemption Date,

plus, in each case, accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the Redemption Date.

In addition, on or after the Par Call Date, the Company may redeem the Notes, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the Redemption Date.

“Par Call Date” means April 20, 2031.

“Treasury Rate” means, with respect to any Redemption Date prior to the Par Call Date, the yield determined by the Company in accordance with the following two paragraphs.

The Treasury Rate shall be determined by the Company after 4:15 p.m., New York City time (or after such time as yields on U.S. government securities are posted daily by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System), on the third business day preceding the Redemption Date based upon the yield or yields for the most recent day that appear after such time on such day in the most recent statistical release published by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System designated as “Selected Interest Rates (Daily)—H.15” (or any successor designation or publication) (“H.15”) under the caption “U.S. government securities—Treasury constant maturities—Nominal” (or any successor caption or heading) (“H.15 TCM”). In determining the Treasury Rate, the Company shall select, as applicable: (1) the yield for the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 exactly equal to the period from the Redemption Date to the Par Call Date (the “Remaining Life”); or (2) if there is no such Treasury constant maturity on H.15 exactly equal to the Remaining Life, the two yields—one yield corresponding to the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 immediately shorter than and one yield corresponding to the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 immediately longer than the Remaining Life—and shall interpolate to the Par Call Date on a straight-line basis (using the actual number of days) using such yields and rounding the result to three decimal places; or (3) if there is no such Treasury constant maturity on H.15 shorter than or longer than the Remaining Life, the yield for the single Treasury constant maturity on H.15 closest to the Remaining Life. For purposes of this paragraph, the applicable Treasury constant maturity or maturities on H.15 shall be deemed to have a maturity date equal to the relevant number of months or years, as applicable, of such Treasury constant maturity from the Redemption Date.

If on the third business day preceding the Redemption Date H.15 TCM is no longer published, the Company shall calculate the Treasury Rate based on the rate per annum equal to the semi-annual equivalent yield to maturity at 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on the second business day preceding such Redemption Date of the United States Treasury security maturing on, or with a maturity that is closest to, the Par Call Date. If there is no United States Treasury security maturing on the Par Call Date but there are two or more United States Treasury securities with a maturity date equally distant from the Par Call Date, one with a maturity date preceding the Par Call Date and one with a maturity date following the Par Call Date, the Company shall select the United States Treasury security with a maturity date preceding the Par Call Date. If there are two or more United States Treasury securities maturing on the Par Call Date or two or more United States Treasury securities meeting the criteria of the preceding sentence, the Company shall select from among these two or more United States Treasury securities the United States Treasury security that is trading closest to par based upon the average of the bid and asked prices for such United States Treasury securities at 11:00 a.m., New York City time. In determining the Treasury Rate in accordance with the terms of this paragraph, the semi-annual yield to maturity of the applicable United States Treasury security shall be based upon the average of the bid and asked prices (expressed as a percentage of principal amount) at 11:00 a.m., New York City time, of such United States Treasury security, and rounded to three decimal places.

The Company's actions and determinations in determining the redemption price shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, installments of interest on the Notes that are due and payable on each Interest Payment Date falling on or prior to a Redemption Date shall be payable on such Interest Payment Date to the Holder(s) as of the close of business on the Regular Record Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date.

Notice of any redemption will be mailed (or otherwise transmitted in accordance with the Depository's procedures) at least 10 days but not more than 60 days before the Redemption Date to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed. Each notice of redemption shall (i) specify the Redemption Date and the redemption price at which the Notes are to be redeemed, (ii) state the applicable conditions precedent to such redemption, if any, as described below, and (iii) state that payment of the redemption price of the Notes to be redeemed, together with interest accrued thereon to the Redemption Date (except that if such Redemption Date is an Interest Payment Date, such interest due on such date shall be payable to the Holder on the Regular Record Date for such Interest Payment Date), shall be made at the office or agency to be maintained by the Company in accordance with Section 5.02 of the Indenture (or, if desired by the Company, at the principal office of the Trustee) upon presentation and surrender of such Notes and that from and after said date any interest thereon shall cease to accrue.

Any notice of redemption may, at the Company's discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, including completion of a corporate transaction. In such event, the related notice of redemption shall describe each such condition and, if applicable, shall state that, at the Company's discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time (including more than 60 days after the notice of redemption was given) as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied (or waived by the Company in its sole discretion), or such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied or waived by the Redemption Date, or by the Redemption Date so delayed. If any such redemption has been rescinded or delayed, the Company shall provide written notice to the Trustee prior to the close of business two Business Days prior to the Redemption Date and shall deliver a written request to the Trustee to promptly provide such notice to each Holder, and, upon receipt, the Trustee shall provide such notice to each Holder. Subject to any delay in the Redemption Date or rescission of the notice of redemption as described above, once notice of redemption is mailed, the Notes called for redemption shall become due and payable on the applicable Redemption Date at the applicable redemption price.

If fewer than all of the Notes are to be redeemed, selection of the Notes to be redeemed shall be made pro rata, by lot or by such other method as the Trustee in its sole discretion deems appropriate and fair. No Notes of a principal amount of $2,000 or less shall be redeemed in part. If any Note is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption that relates to the Note shall state the portion of the principal amount of the Note to be redeemed. Except in the case of Global Securities, a new Note in a principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of the Note shall be issued in the name of the Holder of the Note upon surrender for cancellation of the original Note. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for so long as the Notes are held by the Depository, the redemption of the Notes shall be done in accordance with the policies and procedures of the Depository. Before any Redemption Date, the Company shall deposit with a Paying Agent (or the Trustee) money sufficient to pay the redemption price of the Notes to be redeemed on such date.

Unless the Company defaults in payment of the redemption price therefor, on and after the Redemption Date, interest shall cease to accrue on the Notes or any portions of the Notes called for redemption.

Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption

In the event that (x) the Centessa Acquisition is not consummated on or prior to the date that is five (5) Business Days after the later of (i) March 31, 2027 or (ii) any later date as the parties to the Centessa Agreement may agree as the “Outside Date” thereunder or (y) the Company notifies the Trustee in writing that the Company will not pursue the consummation of the Centessa Acquisition (any such event being a “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Event”), the Company will be required to redeem the Notes then outstanding (such redemption, the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption”) at a redemption price equal to 101% of the principal amount of such Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date (as defined below) (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Price”).

In the event that the Company becomes obligated to redeem the Notes pursuant to the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption, the Company will promptly, and in any event not more than ten (10) Business Days after the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Event, deliver written notice (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice”) to each registered Holder of the Notes and the Trustee of the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption and the date upon which the Notes will be redeemed (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date,” which date shall be no earlier than five (5) days and no later than thirty (30) days following the date of such notice, unless some longer minimum period may be required by DTC (or any successor depository)). The Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice will, in accordance with the Trustee's (if applicable) and DTC's (or any successor depository's) procedures, be mailed, electronically delivered, or otherwise transmitted, according to the procedures of DTC (or any successor depository) to each registered Holder of the Notes. Any Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice may be given by the Company or may be given, at the Company's written direction, by the Trustee in the Company's name and at the Company's expense.

Unless the Company defaults in payment of the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Price of the Notes, on and after such Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date, interest will cease to accrue on the Notes.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, installments of interest on the Notes that are due and payable on an Interest Payment Date falling on or prior to the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date will be payable on such Interest Payment Date to the registered Holders of the Notes as of the close of business on the relevant record date in accordance with the Notes and the Indenture.

Upon the consummation of the Centessa Acquisition, the foregoing provisions regarding the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption will cease to apply. For purposes of the foregoing, the Centessa Acquisition will be deemed consummated if the closing under the Centessa Agreement occurs, including after giving effect to any amendments, modifications or waivers to the Centessa Agreement.

“Centessa” means Centessa Pharmaceuticals plc, a public limited company registered in England and Wales.

“Centessa Acquisition” means the acquisition by Eli Lilly and Company (including through the Purchaser (as defined below)) of Centessa and its subsidiaries pursuant to the Centessa Agreement.

[REVERSE OF NOTE]

This Note is one of a duly authorized issue of a series of debt securities (the “Securities”) of the Company, designated as its 4.650% Notes due 2033 (the “Notes”). The Securities, including the Notes, are all issued or to be issued under and pursuant to the Indenture, to which Indenture, and all Board Resolutions and Officers’ Certificates as provided therein, reference is hereby made for a description of the rights, limitation of rights, obligations, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes, and the terms upon which the Notes are, and are to be, authenticated and delivered. The Notes are initially limited to One Billion Two Hundred and Fifty Million Dollars ($1,250,000,000) in aggregate principal amount; provided, however, that the Company may at any time issue additional Securities under the Indenture in unlimited amounts having the same terms as the Notes other than the date of original issuance and the first Interest Payment Date applicable thereto, and such Securities shall be treated as a single series with the Notes for all purposes under the Indenture.

This Note shall constitute part of the Company’s unsecured and unsubordinated obligations and shall rank equally in right of payment with all of the Company’s other existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. This Note shall be issuable in fully registered form only, in minimum denominations of two thousand Dollars ($2,000) and any integral multiples of one thousand Dollars ($1,000) in excess of that amount.

In case an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing with respect to this Note, the principal hereof may be declared due and payable, and upon such declaration shall become due and payable, in the manner, with the effect, and subject to the conditions provided in the Indenture. The Indenture permits the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding to, on behalf of the Holders of all of the Notes and in the manner and subject to the provisions of the Indenture, waive certain past defaults and rescind and annul such past declarations and their consequences under the Indenture.

The Indenture contains provisions permitting the Company and the Trustee, with consent of the Holders of not less than a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding, evidenced as provided in the Indenture, to execute supplemental indentures for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of the Indenture or of any supplemental indenture with respect to the Notes or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture shall (i) extend the fixed maturity, or the earlier optional date of maturity, if any, of any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the premium thereon, if any, or reduce the rate or extend the time of payment of interest, if any, thereon or make the principal thereof or premium, if any, or interest, if any, thereon payable in any currency other than as provided pursuant to the Indenture or this Note, without the consent of the Holders of each Note so affected; or (ii) reduce the aforesaid percentage of the Notes, the Holders of which are required to consent to any such supplemental indenture, without the consent of the Holders of all Notes then outstanding.

The Notes shall not have the benefit of any sinking fund and, except as set forth below under “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption,” the Notes shall not be subject to any mandatory redemption provision.

Optional Redemption

Upon such notice as specified below and in accordance with the Indenture and the terms of this Note, the Notes are subject to redemption at the election of the Company, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, on a date fixed for redemption (a “Redemption Date”) prior to the Par Call Date and at a “redemption price” (expressed as a percentage of principal amount and rounded to three decimal places) equal to the greater of:

(1) (a) the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on the Notes to be redeemed discounted to the Redemption Date (assuming the Notes to be redeemed matured on the Par Call Date) on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at the Treasury Rate, plus 10 basis points, less (b) interest accrued to the Redemption Date, and

(2) 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed on such Redemption Date,

plus, in each case, accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the Redemption Date.

In addition, on or after the Par Call Date, the Company may redeem the Notes, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the Redemption Date.

“Par Call Date” means March 20, 2033.

“Treasury Rate” means, with respect to any Redemption Date prior to the Par Call Date, the yield determined by the Company in accordance with the following two paragraphs.

The Treasury Rate shall be determined by the Company after 4:15 p.m., New York City time (or after such time as yields on U.S. government securities are posted daily by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System), on the third business day preceding the Redemption Date based upon the yield or yields for the most recent day that appear after such time on such day in the most recent statistical release published by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System designated as “Selected Interest Rates (Daily)—H.15” (or any successor designation or publication) (“H.15”) under the caption “U.S. government securities—Treasury constant maturities—Nominal” (or any successor caption or heading) (“H.15 TCM”). In determining the Treasury Rate, the Company shall select, as applicable: (1) the yield for the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 exactly equal to the period from the Redemption Date to the Par Call Date (the “Remaining Life”); or (2) if there is no such Treasury constant maturity on H.15 exactly equal to the Remaining Life, the two yields—one yield corresponding to the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 immediately shorter than and one yield corresponding to the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 immediately longer than the Remaining Life—and shall interpolate to the Par Call Date on a straight-line basis (using the actual number of days) using such yields and rounding the result to three decimal places; or (3) if there is no such Treasury constant maturity on H.15 shorter than or longer than the Remaining Life, the yield for the single Treasury constant maturity on H.15 closest to the Remaining Life. For purposes of this paragraph, the applicable Treasury constant maturity or maturities on H.15 shall be deemed to have a maturity date equal to the relevant number of months or years, as applicable, of such Treasury constant maturity from the Redemption Date.

If on the third business day preceding the Redemption Date H.15 TCM is no longer published, the Company shall calculate the Treasury Rate based on the rate per annum equal to the semi-annual equivalent yield to maturity at 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on the second business day preceding such Redemption Date of the United States Treasury security maturing on, or with a maturity that is closest to, the Par Call Date. If there is no United States Treasury security maturing on the Par Call Date but there are two or more United States Treasury securities with a maturity date equally distant from the Par Call Date, one with a maturity date preceding the Par Call Date and one with a maturity date following the Par Call Date, the Company shall select the United States Treasury security with a maturity date preceding the Par Call Date. If there are two or more United States Treasury securities maturing on the Par Call Date or two or more United States Treasury securities meeting the criteria of the preceding sentence, the Company shall select from among these two or more United States Treasury securities the United States Treasury security that is trading closest to par based upon the average of the bid and asked prices for such United States Treasury securities at 11:00 a.m., New York City time. In determining the Treasury Rate in accordance with the terms of this paragraph, the semi-annual yield to maturity of the applicable United States Treasury security shall be based upon the average of the bid and asked prices (expressed as a percentage of principal amount) at 11:00 a.m., New York City time, of such United States Treasury security, and rounded to three decimal places.

The Company's actions and determinations in determining the redemption price shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, installments of interest on the Notes that are due and payable on each Interest Payment Date falling on or prior to a Redemption Date shall be payable on such Interest Payment Date to the Holder(s) as of the close of business on the Regular Record Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date.

Notice of any redemption will be mailed (or otherwise transmitted in accordance with the Depository's procedures) at least 10 days but not more than 60 days before the Redemption Date to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed. Each notice of redemption shall (i) specify the Redemption Date and the redemption price at which the Notes are to be redeemed, (ii) state the applicable conditions precedent to such redemption, if any, as described below, and (iii) state that payment of the redemption price of the Notes to be redeemed, together with interest accrued thereon to the Redemption Date (except that if such Redemption Date is an Interest Payment Date, such interest due on such date shall be payable to the Holder on the Regular Record Date for such Interest Payment Date), shall be made at the office or agency to be maintained by the Company in accordance with Section 5.02 of the Indenture (or, if desired by the Company, at the principal office of the Trustee) upon presentation and surrender of such Notes and that from and after said date any interest thereon shall cease to accrue.

Any notice of redemption may, at the Company's discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, including completion of a corporate transaction. In such event, the related notice of redemption shall describe each such condition and, if applicable, shall state that, at the Company's discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time (including more than 60 days after the notice of redemption was given) as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied (or waived by the Company in its sole discretion), or such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied or waived by the Redemption Date, or by the Redemption Date so delayed. If any such redemption has been rescinded or delayed, the Company shall provide written notice to the Trustee prior to the close of business two Business Days prior to the Redemption Date and shall deliver a written request to the Trustee to promptly provide such notice to each Holder, and, upon receipt, the Trustee shall provide such notice to each Holder. Subject to any delay in the Redemption Date or rescission of the notice of redemption as described above, once notice of redemption is mailed, the Notes called for redemption shall become due and payable on the applicable Redemption Date at the applicable redemption price.

If fewer than all of the Notes are to be redeemed, selection of the Notes to be redeemed shall be made pro rata, by lot or by such other method as the Trustee in its sole discretion deems appropriate and fair. No Notes of a principal amount of $2,000 or less shall be redeemed in part. If any Note is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption that relates to the Note shall state the portion of the principal amount of the Note to be redeemed. Except in the case of Global Securities, a new Note in a principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of the Note shall be issued in the name of the Holder of the Note upon surrender for cancellation of the original Note. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for so long as the Notes are held by the Depository, the redemption of the Notes shall be done in accordance with the policies and procedures of the Depository. Before any Redemption Date, the Company shall deposit with a Paying Agent (or the Trustee) money sufficient to pay the redemption price of the Notes to be redeemed on such date.

Unless the Company defaults in payment of the redemption price therefor, on and after the Redemption Date, interest shall cease to accrue on the Notes or any portions of the Notes called for redemption.

Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption

In the event that (x) the Centessa Acquisition is not consummated on or prior to the date that is five (5) Business Days after the later of (i) March 31, 2027 or (ii) any later date as the parties to the Centessa Agreement may agree as the “Outside Date” thereunder or (y) the Company notifies the Trustee in writing that the Company will not pursue the consummation of the Centessa Acquisition (any such event being a “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Event”), the Company will be required to redeem the Notes then outstanding (such redemption, the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption”) at a redemption price equal to 101% of the principal amount of such Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date (as defined below) (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Price”).

In the event that the Company becomes obligated to redeem the Notes pursuant to the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption, the Company will promptly, and in any event not more than ten (10) Business Days after the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Event, deliver written notice (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice”) to each registered Holder of the Notes and the Trustee of the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption and the date upon which the Notes will be redeemed (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date,” which date shall be no earlier than five (5) days and no later than thirty (30) days following the date of such notice, unless some longer minimum period may be required by DTC (or any successor depository)). The Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice will, in accordance with the Trustee's (if applicable) and DTC's (or any successor depository's) procedures, be mailed, electronically delivered, or otherwise transmitted, according to the procedures of DTC (or any successor depository) to each registered Holder of the Notes. Any Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice may be given by the Company or may be given, at the Company's written direction, by the Trustee in the Company's name and at the Company's expense.

Unless the Company defaults in payment of the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Price of the Notes, on and after such Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date, interest will cease to accrue on the Notes.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, installments of interest on the Notes that are due and payable on an Interest Payment Date falling on or prior to the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date will be payable on such Interest Payment Date to the registered Holders of the Notes as of the close of business on the relevant record date in accordance with the Notes and the Indenture.

Upon the consummation of the Centessa Acquisition, the foregoing provisions regarding the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption will cease to apply. For purposes of the foregoing, the Centessa Acquisition will be deemed consummated if the closing under the Centessa Agreement occurs, including after giving effect to any amendments, modifications or waivers to the Centessa Agreement.

“Centessa” means Centessa Pharmaceuticals plc, a public limited company registered in England and Wales.

“Centessa Acquisition” means the acquisition by Eli Lilly and Company (including through the Purchaser (as defined below)) of Centessa and its subsidiaries pursuant to the Centessa Agreement.

“Centessa Agreement” means the Transaction Agreement, dated as of March 31, 2026, by and among Eli Lilly and Company, an Indiana corporation, LDH XV Corporation, a Delaware corporation and direct wholly owned subsidiary of Eli Lilly and Company (the “Purchaser”), and Centessa, as amended, supplemented, renewed, modified or waived from time to time.

General

The Notes are subject to the defeasance provisions set forth in Section 12.02 of the Indenture.

The Company shall not pay any additional amounts on any of the Notes to any person, including any Holder who is not a United States person in respect of any tax, assessment or governmental charge withheld or deducted.

No reference herein to the Indenture and no provision of this Note or of the Indenture or of any Board Resolution shall alter or impair the obligation of the Company, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on this Note at the times and places and at the rate and in the coin and currency herein prescribed.

This Note is transferable by the Holder hereof in person or by his or her attorney duly authorized in writing on the books of the Company at the office or agency to be maintained by the Company for that purpose in the City of New York, but only in the manner, subject to the limitations and upon payment of any tax or governmental charge for which the Company may require reimbursement as provided in the Indenture, and upon surrender and cancellation of this Note. Upon any registration of transfer, a new registered Note or Notes, of authorized denomination or authorized denominations and like tenor and terms, and in the same aggregate principal amount, shall be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor.

The Company, the Trustee, any Paying Agent and any Security Registrar may deem and treat the Holder hereof as the absolute owner of this Note (whether or not this Note shall be overdue and notwithstanding any notations of ownership or other writing hereon made by anyone other than the Security Registrar) for the purpose of receiving payment of or on account of the principal hereof and premium, if any, and interest due hereon as herein provided and for all other purposes, and none of the Company, the Trustee, any Paying Agent or any Security Registrar shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or premium, if any, or interest on this Note, or for any claim based hereon, or otherwise in respect hereof, or based on or in respect of the Indenture or any supplemental indenture thereto or any Board Resolution, against any Person other than the Company or against any incorporator, stockholder, officer or director, past, present or future, as such, of the Company or any other Person, whether by virtue of any constitution, statute or rule of law, or by the enforcement of any assessment or penalty or otherwise, all such liability being, by the acceptance hereof and as part of the consideration for the issuance of this Note, expressly waived and released.

This Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

[REVERSE OF NOTE]

This Note is one of a duly authorized issue of a series of debt securities (the “Securities”) of the Company, designated as its 4.850% Notes due 2036 (the “Notes”). The Securities, including the Notes, are all issued or to be issued under and pursuant to the Indenture, to which Indenture, and all Board Resolutions and Officers’ Certificates as provided therein, reference is hereby made for a description of the rights, limitation of rights, obligations, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes, and the terms upon which the Notes are, and are to be, authenticated and delivered. The Notes are initially limited to One Billion Five Hundred Million Dollars ($1,500,000,000) in aggregate principal amount; provided, however, that the Company may at any time issue additional Securities under the Indenture in unlimited amounts having the same terms as the Notes other than the date of original issuance and the first Interest Payment Date applicable thereto, and such Securities shall be treated as a single series with the Notes for all purposes under the Indenture.

This Note shall constitute part of the Company’s unsecured and unsubordinated obligations and shall rank equally in right of payment with all of the Company’s other existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. This Note shall be issuable in fully registered form only, in minimum denominations of two thousand Dollars ($2,000) and any integral multiples of one thousand Dollars ($1,000) in excess of that amount.

In case an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing with respect to this Note, the principal hereof may be declared due and payable, and upon such declaration shall become due and payable, in the manner, with the effect, and subject to the conditions provided in the Indenture. The Indenture permits the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding to, on behalf of the Holders of all of the Notes and in the manner and subject to the provisions of the Indenture, waive certain past defaults and rescind and annul such past declarations and their consequences under the Indenture.

The Indenture contains provisions permitting the Company and the Trustee, with consent of the Holders of not less than a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding, evidenced as provided in the Indenture, to execute supplemental indentures for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of the Indenture or of any supplemental indenture with respect to the Notes or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture shall (i) extend the fixed maturity, or the earlier optional date of maturity, if any, of any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the premium thereon, if any, or reduce the rate or extend the time of payment of interest, if any, thereon or make the principal thereof or premium, if any, or interest, if any, thereon payable in any currency other than as provided pursuant to the Indenture or this Note, without the consent of the Holders of each Note so affected; or (ii) reduce the aforesaid percentage of the Notes, the Holders of which are required to consent to any such supplemental indenture, without the consent of the Holders of all Notes then outstanding.

The Notes shall not have the benefit of any sinking fund and, except as set forth below under “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption,” the Notes shall not be subject to any mandatory redemption provision.

Optional Redemption

Upon such notice as specified below and in accordance with the Indenture and the terms of this Note, the Notes are subject to redemption at the election of the Company, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, on a date fixed for redemption (a “Redemption Date”) prior to the Par Call Date and at a “redemption price” (expressed as a percentage of principal amount and rounded to three decimal places) equal to the greater of:

(1) (a) the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on the Notes to be redeemed discounted to the Redemption Date (assuming the Notes to be redeemed matured on the Par Call Date) on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at the Treasury Rate, plus 10 basis points, less (b) interest accrued to the Redemption Date, and

(2) 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed on such Redemption Date,

plus, in each case, accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the Redemption Date.

In addition, on or after the Par Call Date, the Company may redeem the Notes, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the Redemption Date.

“Par Call Date” means February 20, 2036.

“Treasury Rate” means, with respect to any Redemption Date prior to the Par Call Date, the yield determined by the Company in accordance with the following two paragraphs.

The Treasury Rate shall be determined by the Company after 4:15 p.m., New York City time (or after such time as yields on U.S. government securities are posted daily by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System), on the third business day preceding the Redemption Date based upon the yield or yields for the most recent day that appear after such time on such day in the most recent statistical release published by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System designated as “Selected Interest Rates (Daily)—H.15” (or any successor designation or publication) (“H.15”) under the caption “U.S. government securities—Treasury constant maturities—Nominal” (or any successor caption or heading) (“H.15 TCM”). In determining the Treasury Rate, the Company shall select, as applicable: (1) the yield for the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 exactly equal to the period from the Redemption Date to the Par Call Date (the “Remaining Life”); or (2) if there is no such Treasury constant maturity on H.15 exactly equal to the Remaining Life, the two yields—one yield corresponding to the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 immediately shorter than and one yield corresponding to the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 immediately longer than the Remaining Life—and shall interpolate to the Par Call Date on a straight-line basis (using the actual number of days) using such yields and rounding the result to three decimal places; or (3) if there is no such Treasury constant maturity on H.15 shorter than or longer than the Remaining Life, the yield for the single Treasury constant maturity on H.15 closest to the Remaining Life. For purposes of this paragraph, the applicable Treasury constant maturity or maturities on H.15 shall be deemed to have a maturity date equal to the relevant number of months or years, as applicable, of such Treasury constant maturity from the Redemption Date.

If on the third business day preceding the Redemption Date H.15 TCM is no longer published, the Company shall calculate the Treasury Rate based on the rate per annum equal to the semi-annual equivalent yield to maturity at 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on the second business day preceding such Redemption Date of the United States Treasury security maturing on, or with a maturity that is closest to, the Par Call Date. If there is no United States Treasury security maturing on the Par Call Date but there are two or more United States Treasury securities with a maturity date equally distant from the Par Call Date, one with a maturity date preceding the Par Call Date and one with a maturity date following the Par Call Date, the Company shall select the United States Treasury security with a maturity date preceding the Par Call Date. If there are two or more United States Treasury securities maturing on the Par Call Date or two or more United States Treasury securities meeting the criteria of the preceding sentence, the Company shall select from among these two or more United States Treasury securities the United States Treasury security that is trading closest to par based upon the average of the bid and asked prices for such United States Treasury securities at 11:00 a.m., New York City time. In determining the Treasury Rate in accordance with the terms of this paragraph, the semi-annual yield to maturity of the applicable United States Treasury security shall be based upon the average of the bid and asked prices (expressed as a percentage of principal amount) at 11:00 a.m., New York City time, of such United States Treasury security, and rounded to three decimal places.

The Company's actions and determinations in determining the redemption price shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, installments of interest on the Notes that are due and payable on each Interest Payment Date falling on or prior to a Redemption Date shall be payable on such Interest Payment Date to the Holder(s) as of the close of business on the Regular Record Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date.

Notice of any redemption will be mailed (or otherwise transmitted in accordance with the Depository's procedures) at least 10 days but not more than 60 days before the Redemption Date to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed. Each notice of redemption shall (i) specify the Redemption Date and the redemption price at which the Notes are to be redeemed, (ii) state the applicable conditions precedent to such redemption, if any, as described below, and (iii) state that payment of the redemption price of the Notes to be redeemed, together with interest accrued thereon to the Redemption Date (except that if such Redemption Date is an Interest Payment Date, such interest due on such date shall be payable to the Holder on the Regular Record Date for such Interest Payment Date), shall be made at the office or agency to be maintained by the Company in accordance with Section 5.02 of the Indenture (or, if desired by the Company, at the principal office of the Trustee) upon presentation and surrender of such Notes and that from and after said date any interest thereon shall cease to accrue.

Any notice of redemption may, at the Company's discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, including completion of a corporate transaction. In such event, the related notice of redemption shall describe each such condition and, if applicable, shall state that, at the Company's discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time (including more than 60 days after the notice of redemption was given) as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied (or waived by the Company in its sole discretion), or such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied or waived by the Redemption Date, or by the Redemption Date so delayed. If any such redemption has been rescinded or delayed, the Company shall provide written notice to the Trustee prior to the close of business two Business Days prior to the Redemption Date and shall deliver a written request to the Trustee to promptly provide such notice to each Holder, and, upon receipt, the Trustee shall provide such notice to each Holder. Subject to any delay in the Redemption Date or rescission of the notice of redemption as described above, once notice of redemption is mailed, the Notes called for redemption shall become due and payable on the applicable Redemption Date at the applicable redemption price.

If fewer than all of the Notes are to be redeemed, selection of the Notes to be redeemed shall be made pro rata, by lot or by such other method as the Trustee in its sole discretion deems appropriate and fair. No Notes of a principal amount of $2,000 or less shall be redeemed in part. If any Note is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption that relates to the Note shall state the portion of the principal amount of the Note to be redeemed. Except in the case of Global Securities, a new Note in a principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of the Note shall be issued in the name of the Holder of the Note upon surrender for cancellation of the original Note. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for so long as the Notes are held by the Depository, the redemption of the Notes shall be done in accordance with the policies and procedures of the Depository. Before any Redemption Date, the Company shall deposit with a Paying Agent (or the Trustee) money sufficient to pay the redemption price of the Notes to be redeemed on such date.

Unless the Company defaults in payment of the redemption price therefor, on and after the Redemption Date, interest shall cease to accrue on the Notes or any portions of the Notes called for redemption.

Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption

In the event that (x) the Centessa Acquisition is not consummated on or prior to the date that is five (5) Business Days after the later of (i) March 31, 2027 or (ii) any later date as the parties to the Centessa Agreement may agree as the “Outside Date” thereunder or (y) the Company notifies the Trustee in writing that the Company will not pursue the consummation of the Centessa Acquisition (any such event being a “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Event”), the Company will be required to redeem the Notes then outstanding (such redemption, the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption”) at a redemption price equal to 101% of the principal amount of such Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date (as defined below) (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Price”).

In the event that the Company becomes obligated to redeem the Notes pursuant to the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption, the Company will promptly, and in any event not more than ten (10) Business Days after the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Event, deliver written notice (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice”) to each registered Holder of the Notes and the Trustee of the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption and the date upon which the Notes will be redeemed (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date,” which date shall be no earlier than five (5) days and no later than thirty (30) days following the date of such notice, unless some longer minimum period may be required by DTC (or any successor depository)). The Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice will, in accordance with the Trustee's (if applicable) and DTC's (or any successor depository's) procedures, be mailed, electronically delivered, or otherwise transmitted, according to the procedures of DTC (or any successor depository) to each registered Holder of the Notes. Any Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice may be given by the Company or may be given, at the Company's written direction, by the Trustee in the Company's name and at the Company's expense.

Unless the Company defaults in payment of the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Price of the Notes, on and after such Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date, interest will cease to accrue on the Notes.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, installments of interest on the Notes that are due and payable on an Interest Payment Date falling on or prior to the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date will be payable on such Interest Payment Date to the registered Holders of the Notes as of the close of business on the relevant record date in accordance with the Notes and the Indenture.

Upon the consummation of the Centessa Acquisition, the foregoing provisions regarding the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption will cease to apply. For purposes of the foregoing, the Centessa Acquisition will be deemed consummated if the closing under the Centessa Agreement occurs, including after giving effect to any amendments, modifications or waivers to the Centessa Agreement.

“Centessa” means Centessa Pharmaceuticals plc, a public limited company registered in England and Wales.

“Centessa Acquisition” means the acquisition by Eli Lilly and Company (including through the Purchaser (as defined below)) of Centessa and its subsidiaries pursuant to the Centessa Agreement.

“Centessa Agreement” means the Transaction Agreement, dated as of March 31, 2026, by and among Eli Lilly and Company, an Indiana corporation, LDH XV Corporation, a Delaware corporation and direct wholly owned subsidiary of Eli Lilly and Company (the “Purchaser”), and Centessa, as amended, supplemented, renewed, modified or waived from time to time.

General

The Notes are subject to the defeasance provisions set forth in Section 12.02 of the Indenture.

The Company shall not pay any additional amounts on any of the Notes to any person, including any Holder who is not a United States person in respect of any tax, assessment or governmental charge withheld or deducted.

No reference herein to the Indenture and no provision of this Note or of the Indenture or of any Board Resolution shall alter or impair the obligation of the Company, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on this Note at the times and places and at the rate and in the coin and currency herein prescribed.

This Note is transferable by the Holder hereof in person or by his or her attorney duly authorized in writing on the books of the Company at the office or agency to be maintained by the Company for that purpose in the City of New York, but only in the manner, subject to the limitations and upon payment of any tax or governmental charge for which the Company may require reimbursement as provided in the Indenture, and upon surrender and cancellation of this Note. Upon any registration of transfer, a new registered Note or Notes, of authorized denomination or authorized denominations and like tenor and terms, and in the same aggregate principal amount, shall be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor.

The Company, the Trustee, any Paying Agent and any Security Registrar may deem and treat the Holder hereof as the absolute owner of this Note (whether or not this Note shall be overdue and notwithstanding any notations of ownership or other writing hereon made by anyone other than the Security Registrar) for the purpose of receiving payment of or on account of the principal hereof and premium, if any, and interest due hereon as herein provided and for all other purposes, and none of the Company, the Trustee, any Paying Agent or any Security Registrar shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or premium, if any, or interest on this Note, or for any claim based hereon, or otherwise in respect hereof, or based on or in respect of the Indenture or any supplemental indenture thereto or any Board Resolution, against any Person other than the Company or against any incorporator, stockholder, officer or director, past, present or future, as such, of the Company or any other Person, whether by virtue of any constitution, statute or rule of law, or by the enforcement of any assessment or penalty or otherwise, all such liability being, by the acceptance hereof and as part of the consideration for the issuance of this Note, expressly waived and released.

This Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

[REVERSE OF NOTE]

This Note is one of a duly authorized issue of a series of debt securities (the “Securities”) of the Company, designated as its 5.600% Notes due 2056 (the “Notes”). The Securities, including the Notes, are all issued or to be issued under and pursuant to the Indenture, to which Indenture, and all Board Resolutions and Officers’ Certificates as provided therein, reference is hereby made for a description of the rights, limitation of rights, obligations, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes, and the terms upon which the Notes are, and are to be, authenticated and delivered. The Notes are initially limited to One Billion Seven Hundred and Fifty Million Dollars ($1,750,000,000) in aggregate principal amount; provided, however, that the Company may at any time issue additional Securities under the Indenture in unlimited amounts having the same terms as the Notes other than the date of original issuance and the first Interest Payment Date applicable thereto, and such Securities shall be treated as a single series with the Notes for all purposes under the Indenture.

This Note shall constitute part of the Company’s unsecured and unsubordinated obligations and shall rank equally in right of payment with all of the Company’s other existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. This Note shall be issuable in fully registered form only, in minimum denominations of two thousand Dollars ($2,000) and any integral multiples of one thousand Dollars ($1,000) in excess of that amount.

In case an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing with respect to this Note, the principal hereof may be declared due and payable, and upon such declaration shall become due and payable, in the manner, with the effect, and subject to the conditions provided in the Indenture. The Indenture permits the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding to, on behalf of the Holders of all of the Notes and in the manner and subject to the provisions of the Indenture, waive certain past defaults and rescind and annul such past declarations and their consequences under the Indenture.

The Indenture contains provisions permitting the Company and the Trustee, with consent of the Holders of not less than a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding, evidenced as provided in the Indenture, to execute supplemental indentures for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of the Indenture or of any supplemental indenture with respect to the Notes or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture shall (i) extend the fixed maturity, or the earlier optional date of maturity, if any, of any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the premium thereon, if any, or reduce the rate or extend the time of payment of interest, if any, thereon or make the principal thereof or premium, if any, or interest, if any, thereon payable in any currency other than as provided pursuant to the Indenture or this Note, without the consent of the Holders of each Note so affected; or (ii) reduce the aforesaid percentage of the Notes, the Holders of which are required to consent to any such supplemental indenture, without the consent of the Holders of all Notes then outstanding.

The Notes shall not have the benefit of any sinking fund and the Notes shall not be subject to any mandatory redemption provision.

Optional Redemption

Upon such notice as specified below and in accordance with the Indenture and the terms of this Note, the Notes are subject to redemption at the election of the Company, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, on a date fixed for redemption (a “Redemption Date”) prior to the Par Call Date and at a “redemption price” (expressed as a percentage of principal amount and rounded to three decimal places) equal to the greater of:

(1) (a) the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on the Notes to be redeemed discounted to the Redemption Date (assuming the Notes to be redeemed matured on the Par Call Date) on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at the Treasury Rate, plus 12.5 basis points, less (b) interest accrued to the Redemption Date, and

(2) 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed on such Redemption Date,

plus, in each case, accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the Redemption Date.

In addition, on or after the Par Call Date, the Company may redeem the Notes, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the Redemption Date.

“Par Call Date” means November 20, 2055.

“Treasury Rate” means, with respect to any Redemption Date prior to the Par Call Date, the yield determined by the Company in accordance with the following two paragraphs.

The Treasury Rate shall be determined by the Company after 4:15 p.m., New York City time (or after such time as yields on U.S. government securities are posted daily by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System), on the third business day preceding the Redemption Date based upon the yield or yields for the most recent day that appear after such time on such day in the most recent statistical release published by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System designated as “Selected Interest Rates (Daily)—H.15” (or any successor designation or publication) (“H.15”) under the caption “U.S. government securities—Treasury constant maturities—Nominal” (or any successor caption or heading) (“H.15 TCM”). In determining the Treasury Rate, the Company shall select, as applicable: (1) the yield for the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 exactly equal to the period from the Redemption Date to the Par Call Date (the “Remaining Life”); or (2) if there is no such Treasury constant maturity on H.15 exactly equal to the Remaining Life, the two yields—one yield corresponding to the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 immediately shorter than and one yield corresponding to the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 immediately longer than the Remaining Life—and shall interpolate to the Par Call Date on a straight-line basis (using the actual number of days) using such yields and rounding the result to three decimal places; or (3) if there is no such Treasury constant maturity on H.15 shorter than or longer than the Remaining Life, the yield for the single Treasury constant maturity on H.15 closest to the Remaining Life. For purposes of this paragraph, the applicable Treasury constant maturity or maturities on H.15 shall be deemed to have a maturity date equal to the relevant number of months or years, as applicable, of such Treasury constant maturity from the Redemption Date.

If on the third business day preceding the Redemption Date H.15 TCM is no longer published, the Company shall calculate the Treasury Rate based on the rate per annum equal to the semi-annual equivalent yield to maturity at 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on the second business day preceding such Redemption Date of the United States Treasury security maturing on, or with a maturity that is closest to, the Par Call Date. If there is no United States Treasury security maturing on the Par Call Date but there are two or more United States Treasury securities with a maturity date equally distant from the Par Call Date, one with a maturity date preceding the Par Call Date and one with a maturity date following the Par Call Date, the Company shall select the United States Treasury security with a maturity date preceding the Par Call Date. If there are two or more United States Treasury securities maturing on the Par Call Date or two or more United States Treasury securities meeting the criteria of the preceding sentence, the Company shall select from among these two or more United States Treasury securities the United States Treasury security that is trading closest to par based upon the average of the bid and asked prices for such United States Treasury securities at 11:00 a.m., New York City time. In determining the Treasury Rate in accordance with the terms of this paragraph, the semi-annual yield to maturity of the applicable United States Treasury security shall be based upon the average of the bid and asked prices (expressed as a percentage of principal amount) at 11:00 a.m., New York City time, of such United States Treasury security, and rounded to three decimal places.

The Company's actions and determinations in determining the redemption price shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, installments of interest on the Notes that are due and payable on each Interest Payment Date falling on or prior to a Redemption Date shall be payable on such Interest Payment Date to the Holder(s) as of the close of business on the Regular Record Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date.

Notice of any redemption will be mailed (or otherwise transmitted in accordance with the Depository's procedures) at least 10 days but not more than 60 days before the Redemption Date to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed. Each notice of redemption shall (i) specify the Redemption Date and the redemption price at which the Notes are to be redeemed, (ii) state the applicable conditions precedent to such redemption, if any, as described below, and (iii) state that payment of the redemption price of the Notes to be redeemed, together with interest accrued thereon to the Redemption Date (except that if such Redemption Date is an Interest Payment Date, such interest due on such date shall be payable to the Holder on the Regular Record Date for such Interest Payment Date), shall be made at the office or agency to be maintained by the Company in accordance with Section 5.02 of the Indenture (or, if desired by the Company, at the principal office of the Trustee) upon presentation and surrender of such Notes and that from and after said date any interest thereon shall cease to accrue.

Any notice of redemption may, at the Company's discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, including completion of a corporate transaction. In such event, the related notice of redemption shall describe each such condition and, if applicable, shall state that, at the Company's discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time (including more than 60 days after the notice of redemption was given) as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied (or waived by the Company in its sole discretion), or such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied or waived by the Redemption Date, or by the Redemption Date so delayed. If any such redemption has been rescinded or delayed, the Company shall provide written notice to the Trustee prior to the close of business two Business Days prior to the Redemption Date and shall deliver a written request to the Trustee to promptly provide such notice to each Holder, and, upon receipt, the Trustee shall provide such notice to each Holder. Subject to any delay in the Redemption Date or rescission of the notice of redemption as described above, once notice of redemption is mailed, the Notes called for redemption shall become due and payable on the applicable Redemption Date at the applicable redemption price.

If fewer than all of the Notes are to be redeemed, selection of the Notes to be redeemed shall be made pro rata, by lot or by such other method as the Trustee in its sole discretion deems appropriate and fair. No Notes of a principal amount of $2,000 or less shall be redeemed in part. If any Note is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption that relates to the Note shall state the portion of the principal amount of the Note to be redeemed. Except in the case of Global Securities, a new Note in a principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of the Note shall be issued in the name of the Holder of the Note upon surrender for cancellation of the original Note. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for so long as the Notes are held by the Depositary, the redemption of the Notes shall be done in accordance with the policies and procedures of the Depositary. Before any Redemption Date, the Company shall deposit with a Paying Agent (or the Trustee) money sufficient to pay the redemption price of the Notes to be redeemed on such date.

Unless the Company defaults in payment of the redemption price therefor, on and after the Redemption Date, interest shall cease to accrue on the Notes or any portions of the Notes called for redemption.

General

The Notes are subject to the defeasance provisions set forth in Section 12.02 of the Indenture.

The Company shall not pay any additional amounts on any of the Notes to any person, including any Holder who is not a United States person in respect of any tax, assessment or governmental charge withheld or deducted.

No reference herein to the Indenture and no provision of this Note or of the Indenture or of any Board Resolution shall alter or impair the obligation of the Company, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on this Note at the times and places and at the rate and in the coin and currency herein prescribed.

This Note is transferable by the Holder hereof in person or by his or her attorney duly authorized in writing on the books of the Company at the office or agency to be maintained by the Company for that purpose in the City of New York, but only in the manner, subject to the limitations and upon payment of any tax or governmental charge for which the Company may require reimbursement as provided in the Indenture, and upon surrender and cancellation of this Note. Upon any registration of transfer, a new registered Note or Notes, of authorized denomination or authorized denominations and like tenor and terms, and in the same aggregate principal amount, shall be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor.

The Company, the Trustee, any Paying Agent and any Security Registrar may deem and treat the Holder hereof as the absolute owner of this Note (whether or not this Note shall be overdue and notwithstanding any notations of ownership or other writing hereon made by anyone other than the Security Registrar) for the purpose of receiving payment of or on account of the principal hereof and premium, if any, and interest due hereon as herein provided and for all other purposes, and none of the Company, the Trustee, any Paying Agent or any Security Registrar shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or premium, if any, or interest on this Note, or for any claim based hereon, or otherwise in respect hereof, or based on or in respect of the Indenture or any supplemental indenture thereto or any Board Resolution, against any Person other than the Company or against any incorporator, stockholder, officer or director, past, present or future, as such, of the Company or any other Person, whether by virtue of any constitution, statute or rule of law, or by the enforcement of any assessment or penalty or otherwise, all such liability being, by the acceptance hereof and as part of the consideration for the issuance of this Note, expressly waived and released.

This Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

This Note is one of a duly authorized issue of a series of debt securities (the “Securities”) of the Company, designated as its 5.700% Notes due 2066 (the “Notes”). The Securities, including the Notes, are all issued or to be issued under and pursuant to the Indenture, to which Indenture, and all Board Resolutions and Officers’ Certificates as provided therein, reference is hereby made for a description of the rights, limitation of rights, obligations, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes, and the terms upon which the Notes are, and are to be, authenticated and delivered. The Notes are initially limited to One Billion Dollars ($1,000,000,000) in aggregate principal amount; provided, however, that the Company may at any time issue additional Securities under the Indenture in unlimited amounts having the same terms as the Notes other than the date of original issuance and the first Interest Payment Date applicable thereto, and such Securities shall be treated as a single series with the Notes for all purposes under the Indenture.

This Note shall constitute part of the Company’s unsecured and unsubordinated obligations and shall rank equally in right of payment with all of the Company’s other existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. This Note shall be issuable in fully registered form only, in minimum denominations of two thousand Dollars ($2,000) and any integral multiples of one thousand Dollars ($1,000) in excess of that amount.

In case an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing with respect to this Note, the principal hereof may be declared due and payable, and upon such declaration shall become due and payable, in the manner, with the effect, and subject to the conditions provided in the Indenture. The Indenture permits the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding to, on behalf of the Holders of all of the Notes and in the manner and subject to the provisions of the Indenture, waive certain past defaults and rescind and annul such past declarations and their consequences under the Indenture.

The Indenture contains provisions permitting the Company and the Trustee, with consent of the Holders of not less than a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding, evidenced as provided in the Indenture, to execute supplemental indentures for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of the Indenture or of any supplemental indenture with respect to the Notes or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture shall (i) extend the fixed maturity, or the earlier optional date of maturity, if any, of any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the premium thereon, if any, or reduce the rate or extend the time of payment of interest, if any, thereon or make the principal thereof or premium, if any, or interest, if any, thereon payable in any currency other than as provided pursuant to the Indenture or this Note, without the consent of the Holders of each Note so affected; or (ii) reduce the aforesaid percentage of the Notes, the Holders of which are required to consent to any such supplemental indenture, without the consent of the Holders of all Notes then outstanding.

The Notes shall not have the benefit of any sinking fund and the Notes shall not be subject to any mandatory redemption provision.

Optional Redemption

Upon such notice as specified below and in accordance with the Indenture and the terms of this Note, the Notes are subject to redemption at the election of the Company, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, on a date fixed for redemption (a “Redemption Date”) prior to the Par Call Date and at a “redemption price” (expressed as a percentage of principal amount and rounded to three decimal places) equal to the greater of:

(1) (a) the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on the Notes to be redeemed discounted to the Redemption Date (assuming the Notes to be redeemed matured on the Par Call Date) on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at the Treasury Rate, plus 15 basis points, less (b) interest accrued to the Redemption Date, and

(2) 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed on such Redemption Date,

plus, in each case, accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the Redemption Date.

In addition, on or after the Par Call Date, the Company may redeem the Notes, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the Redemption Date.

“Par Call Date” means November 20, 2065.

“Treasury Rate” means, with respect to any Redemption Date prior to the Par Call Date, the yield determined by the Company in accordance with the following two paragraphs.

The Treasury Rate shall be determined by the Company after 4:15 p.m., New York City time (or after such time as yields on U.S. government securities are posted daily by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System), on the third business day preceding the Redemption Date based upon the yield or yields for the most recent day that appear after such time on such day in the most recent statistical release published by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System designated as “Selected Interest Rates (Daily)—H.15” (or any successor designation or publication) (“H.15”) under the caption “U.S. government securities—Treasury constant maturities—Nominal” (or any successor caption or heading) (“H.15 TCM”). In determining the Treasury Rate, the Company shall select, as applicable: (1) the yield for the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 exactly equal to the period from the Redemption Date to the Par Call Date (the “Remaining Life”); or (2) if there is no such Treasury constant maturity on H.15 exactly equal to the Remaining Life, the two yields—one yield corresponding to the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 immediately shorter than and one yield corresponding to the Treasury constant maturity on H.15 immediately longer than the Remaining Life—and shall interpolate to the Par Call Date on a straight-line basis (using the actual number of days) using such yields and rounding the result to three decimal places; or (3) if there is no such Treasury constant maturity on H.15 shorter than or longer than the Remaining Life, the yield for the single Treasury constant maturity on H.15 closest to the Remaining Life. For purposes of this paragraph, the applicable Treasury constant maturity or maturities on H.15 shall be deemed to have a maturity date equal to the relevant number of months or years, as applicable, of such Treasury constant maturity from the Redemption Date.

If on the third business day preceding the Redemption Date H.15 TCM is no longer published, the Company shall calculate the Treasury Rate based on the rate per annum equal to the semi-annual equivalent yield to maturity at 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on the second business day preceding such Redemption Date of the United States Treasury security maturing on, or with a maturity that is closest to, the Par Call Date. If there is no United States Treasury security maturing on the Par Call Date but there are two or more United States Treasury securities with a maturity date equally distant from the Par Call Date, one with a maturity date preceding the Par Call Date and one with a maturity date following the Par Call Date, the Company shall select the United States Treasury security with a maturity date preceding the Par Call Date. If there are two or more United States Treasury securities maturing on the Par Call Date or two or more United States Treasury securities meeting the criteria of the preceding sentence, the Company shall select from among these two or more United States Treasury securities the United States Treasury security that is trading closest to par based upon the average of the bid and asked prices for such United States Treasury securities at 11:00 a.m., New York City time. In determining the Treasury Rate in accordance with the terms of this paragraph, the semi-annual yield to maturity of the applicable United States Treasury security shall be based upon the average of the bid and asked prices (expressed as a percentage of principal amount) at 11:00 a.m., New York City time, of such United States Treasury security, and rounded to three decimal places.

The Company's actions and determinations in determining the redemption price shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, installments of interest on the Notes that are due and payable on each Interest Payment Date falling on or prior to a Redemption Date shall be payable on such Interest Payment Date to the Holder(s) as of the close of business on the Regular Record Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date.

Notice of any redemption will be mailed (or otherwise transmitted in accordance with the Depository's procedures) at least 10 days but not more than 60 days before the Redemption Date to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed. Each notice of redemption shall (i) specify the Redemption Date and the redemption price at which the Notes are to be redeemed, (ii) state the applicable conditions precedent to such redemption, if any, as described below, and (iii) state that payment of the redemption price of the Notes to be redeemed, together with interest accrued thereon to the Redemption Date (except that if such Redemption Date is an Interest Payment Date, such interest due on such date shall be payable to the Holder on the Regular Record Date for such Interest Payment Date), shall be made at the office or agency to be maintained by the Company in accordance with Section 5.02 of the Indenture (or, if desired by the Company, at the principal office of the Trustee) upon presentation and surrender of such Notes and that from and after said date any interest thereon shall cease to accrue.

Any notice of redemption may, at the Company's discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, including completion of a corporate transaction. In such event, the related notice of redemption shall describe each such condition and, if applicable, shall state that, at the Company's discretion, the Redemption Date may be delayed until such time (including more than 60 days after the notice of redemption was given) as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied (or waived by the Company in its sole discretion), or such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied or waived by the Redemption Date, or by the Redemption Date so delayed. If any such redemption has been rescinded or delayed, the Company shall provide written notice to the Trustee prior to the close of business two Business Days prior to the Redemption Date and shall deliver a written request to the Trustee to promptly provide such notice to each Holder, and, upon receipt, the Trustee shall provide such notice to each Holder. Subject to any delay in the Redemption Date or rescission of the notice of redemption as described above, once notice of redemption is mailed, the Notes called for redemption shall become due and payable on the applicable Redemption Date at the applicable redemption price.

If fewer than all of the Notes are to be redeemed, selection of the Notes to be redeemed shall be made pro rata, by lot or by such other method as the Trustee in its sole discretion deems appropriate and fair. No Notes of a principal amount of $2,000 or less shall be redeemed in part. If any Note is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption that relates to the Note shall state the portion of the principal amount of the Note to be redeemed. Except in the case of Global Securities, a new Note in a principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of the Note shall be issued in the name of the Holder of the Note upon surrender for cancellation of the original Note. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for so long as the Notes are held by the Depositary, the redemption of the Notes shall be done in accordance with the policies and procedures of the Depositary. Before any Redemption Date, the Company shall deposit with a Paying Agent (or the Trustee) money sufficient to pay the redemption price of the Notes to be redeemed on such date.

Unless the Company defaults in payment of the redemption price therefor, on and after the Redemption Date, interest shall cease to accrue on the Notes or any portions of the Notes called for redemption.

General

The Notes are subject to the defeasance provisions set forth in Section 12.02 of the Indenture.

The Company shall not pay any additional amounts on any of the Notes to any person, including any Holder who is not a United States person in respect of any tax, assessment or governmental charge withheld or deducted.

No reference herein to the Indenture and no provision of this Note or of the Indenture or of any Board Resolution shall alter or impair the obligation of the Company, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on this Note at the times and places and at the rate and in the coin and currency herein prescribed.

This Note is transferable by the Holder hereof in person or by his or her attorney duly authorized in writing on the books of the Company at the office or agency to be maintained by the Company for that purpose in the City of New York, but only in the manner, subject to the limitations and upon payment of any tax or governmental charge for which the Company may require reimbursement as provided in the Indenture, and upon surrender and cancellation of this Note. Upon any registration of transfer, a new registered Note or Notes, of authorized denomination or authorized denominations and like tenor and terms, and in the same aggregate principal amount, shall be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor.

The Company, the Trustee, any Paying Agent and any Security Registrar may deem and treat the Holder hereof as the absolute owner of this Note (whether or not this Note shall be overdue and notwithstanding any notations of ownership or other writing hereon made by anyone other than the Security Registrar) for the purpose of receiving payment of or on account of the principal hereof and premium, if any, and interest due hereon as herein provided and for all other purposes, and none of the Company, the Trustee, any Paying Agent or any Security Registrar shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or premium, if any, or interest on this Note, or for any claim based hereon, or otherwise in respect hereof, or based on or in respect of the Indenture or any supplemental indenture thereto or any Board Resolution, against any Person other than the Company or against any incorporator, stockholder, officer or director, past, present or future, as such, of the Company or any other Person, whether by virtue of any constitution, statute or rule of law, or by the enforcement of any assessment or penalty or otherwise, all such liability being, by the acceptance hereof and as part of the consideration for the issuance of this Note, expressly waived and released.

This Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

ELI LILLY AND COMPANYOfficers' Certificate Pursuant to Section 3.01 of the Indenture

, 2026

The undersigned, Jon Haug, Senior Vice President, Treasurer and Corporate Finance and Investment Banking of Eli Lilly and Company, an Indiana corporation (the "Company"), and Christopher Anderson, Vice President, Leader of Corporate Securities and Assistant Secretary of the Company, pursuant to Section 3.01 of the Indenture, dated as of February 1, 1991 (the "Indenture"), between the Company and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas (as successor to Citibank, N.A.), as trustee (the "Trustee"), as authorized by resolutions of the Board of Directors of the Company, dated August 12, 2025, and minutes of the Risk Management Committee of the Company at its meeting on April 27, 2026 (collectively, the "Board Resolutions"), do hereby certify as follows:

(i) There are hereby established two series of debt securities to be issued under the Indenture. The title of such series of the debt securities shall be (i) the "Floating Rate Notes due 2028" (the "2028 Floating Rate Notes") and (ii) the "Floating Rate Notes due 2029" (the "2029 Floating Rate Notes") and, together with the 2028 Floating Rate Notes, the "Floating Rate Notes").

(ii) The two series of Floating Rate Notes shall be in the forms, and shall have the terms, set forth as Annex A-1 and Annex A-2, respectively, attached hereto. The Floating Rate Notes shall be issued in the form of Registered Securities and shall not be issued in the form of Bearer Securities.

(iii) The initial limit upon the aggregate principal amount of the Floating Rate Notes that may be authenticated and delivered under the Indenture (except for Floating Rate Notes authenticated and delivered upon registration or transfer of, or in exchange for, or in lieu of, other Floating Rate Notes pursuant to Sections 3.04, 3.05, 3.06, 4.03 or 10.04 of the Indenture) is (i) Seven Hundred and Fifty Million Dollars ($750,000,000), with respect to the 2028 Floating Rate Notes and (ii) Five Hundred Million Dollars ($500,000,000), with respect to the 2029 Floating Rate Notes; provided, however, that, without the consent of the Holders of any Securities, the Company may at any time issue additional Securities having the same terms as the Floating Rate Notes of a particular series other than the date of original issuance and the first Interest Payment Date applicable to such additional Securities. Any such additional Securities shall constitute a single series of Securities with the applicable series of Floating Rate Notes under the Indenture.

(iv) The principal amount of the 2028 Floating Rate Notes shall be payable on May 20, 2028 and the principal amount of the 2029 Floating Rate Notes shall be payable on May 20, 2029 (each, a "Maturity Date"), unless, in the case of the 2029 Floating Rate Notes, such series of Floating Rate Notes is redeemed prior to such time in accordance with clause (xii) below.

(v) The 2028 Floating Rate Notes shall bear interest at a floating rate, reset quarterly on each Floating Rate Interest Payment Date, equal to Compounded SOFR (as defined below), plus 0.350%. The 2029 Floating Rate Notes shall bear interest at a floating rate, reset quarterly on each Floating Rate Interest Payment Date, equal to Compounded SOFR (as defined below), plus 0.460%. In no event shall the interest on the Floating Rate Notes be (i) higher than the maximum rate permitted by New York law as the same may be modified by U.S. law of general application or (ii) lower than zero. Interest on either series of Floating Rate Notes shall be payable quarterly in arrears on February 20, May 20, August 20 and November 20 of each year, commencing on August 20, 2026, and at the respective Maturity Date of each series of Floating Rate Notes (each, a "Floating Rate Interest Payment Date"), to holders of record of the applicable series of Floating Rate Notes as of the close of business on the date that is 15 calendar days prior to the applicable Floating Rate Interest Payment Date. Interest on the Floating Rate Notes shall accrue from, and including, the most recent Floating Rate Interest Payment Date for the applicable series of Floating Rate Notes (or, if no interest has been paid, from May 20, 2026) to, but excluding, the corresponding Latter Floating Rate Interest Payment Date (as defined below) for the applicable series of Floating Rate Notes. If February 20, May 20, August 20 or November 20 of any year is not a Business Day (as defined in the Floating Rate Notes), then the next succeeding Business Day shall be the applicable Floating Rate Interest Payment Date for the applicable series of Floating Rate Notes and interest on such series of Floating Rate Notes shall be paid on such next succeeding Business Day (unless such next succeeding Business Day falls in the succeeding calendar month, in which case the applicable Floating Rate Interest Payment Date for such series of Floating Rate Notes shall be the Business Day immediately preceding such February 20, May 20, August 20 or November 20, and interest on such series of Floating Rate Notes shall be paid on such immediately preceding Business Day). If the Maturity Date of either series of Floating Rate Notes is not a Business Day, the payment of principal of, and interest on, such series of Floating Rate Notes shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day, and no interest shall accrue for the period from and after such Maturity Date.

The "initial Interest Period" for either series of Floating Rate Notes means the period from and including May 20, 2026 to, but excluding, the first Floating Rate Interest Payment Date for such series of Floating Rate Notes. Thereafter, each "Interest Period" means the period from and including the applicable Floating Rate Interest Payment Date to, but excluding, the immediately succeeding Floating Rate Interest Payment Date for such series of Floating Rate Notes (such succeeding Floating Rate Interest Payment Date, the "Latter Floating Rate Interest Payment Date"); provided that the final Interest Period for either series of Floating Rate Notes shall be the period from and including the Floating Rate Interest Payment Date immediately preceding the Maturity Date of such series of Floating Rate Notes to, but excluding, the Maturity Date of such series of Floating Rate Notes. Interest on the Floating Rate Notes shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year and the actual number of days in the Observation Period (as defined below).

The interest rate for the initial Interest Period (x) with respect to the 2028 Floating Rate Notes shall be Compounded SOFR determined on August 18, 2026, plus 0.350% and (y) with respect to the 2029 Floating Rate Notes shall be Compounded SOFR determined on August 18, 2026, plus 0.460%. Thereafter, the interest rate for any Interest Period shall be Compounded SOFR, as determined on the applicable date that is the second U.S. Government Securities Business Day (as defined below) preceding such Floating Rate Interest Payment Date for such series of Floating Rate Notes (the "Interest Determination Date"), plus (x) with respect to the 2028 Floating Rate Notes, a margin of 0.350% and (y) with respect to the 2029 Floating Rate Notes, a margin of 0.460%.

The amount of interest accrued and payable on either series of Floating Rate Notes for each Interest Period shall be equal to the product of (i) the outstanding principal amount of such series of Floating Rate Notes multiplied by (ii) the product of (a) the interest rate for the relevant Interest Period for such series of Floating Rate Notes multiplied by (b) the quotient of the actual number of calendar days in the Observation Period divided by 360. The interest rate for any Interest Period shall not be adjusted for any modifications or amendments to the SOFR Index (as defined below) or SOFR data that the New York Federal Reserve (as defined below) may publish after the interest rate for that Interest Period has been determined.

If a SOFR IndexStart (as defined below) or SOFR IndexEnd (as defined below) is not published on the associated Interest Determination Date and a Benchmark Transition Event (as defined below) and its related Benchmark Replacement Date (as defined below) have not occurred with respect to the Secured Overnight Financing Rate, "Compounded SOFR" shall mean, for the applicable Interest Period for which such index is not available, the rate of return on a daily compounded interest investment calculated in accordance with the formula for SOFR Averages, and definitions required for such formula, published on the New York Federal Reserve's Website, initially located at <https://www.newyorkfed.org/markets/treasury-repo-reference-rates-information>. For the purposes of this provision, references in the SOFR Averages compounding formula and related definitions to "calculation period" shall be replaced with "Observation Period" and the words "that is, 30-, 90-, or 180- calendar days" shall be removed. If the daily Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR_i") does not so appear for any day, "i" in the Observation Period, SOFR_i for such day "i" shall be SOFR published in respect of the first preceding U.S. Government Securities Business Day for which the Secured Overnight Financing Rate was published on the New York Federal Reserve's Website.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein, the Indenture, the Floating Rate Notes or in any other documentation relating to the Floating Rate Notes, if the Company or its designee determine on or prior to the relevant Reference Time (as defined below) that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to the then-current Benchmark (as defined below), the Benchmark Replacement (as defined below) shall replace the then-current Benchmark for all purposes relating to all or any series of Floating Rate Notes, as applicable, in respect of all determinations on such date and for all determinations on all subsequent dates.

In connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, the Company or its designee shall have the right to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes (as defined below) from time to time.

Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Company or its designee pursuant to the Benchmark Replacement provisions described herein, including a determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action or any selection:

- (a) shall be conclusive and binding absent manifest error;

(b) if made by the Company, shall be made in the Company's sole discretion;

(c) if made by the Company's designee, shall be made after consultation with the Company, and such designee shall not make any such determination, decision or election to which the Company objects; and

(d) notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Floating Rate Notes or in the other documents relating to the Floating Rate Notes, including the Indenture, shall become effective without consent from the Holders of any series of Floating Rate Notes or any other party.

(vi) Interest shall be payable to the person in whose name a Floating Rate Note (or any Predecessor Security) is registered at the close of business on the Regular Record Date immediately preceding the applicable Interest Payment Date (or, in the case of Defaulted Interest, in the manner provided in Section 3.07 in the Indenture). The "Regular Record Date" for each series of Floating Rate Notes shall be the date that is 15 calendar days prior to each Floating Rate Interest Payment Date for the applicable series of Floating Rate Notes (whether or not a Business Day).

(vii) The Floating Rate Notes shall be denominated, and amounts due thereon shall be payable, solely in Dollars.

(viii) The Company shall at all times maintain a Place of Payment for the Floating Rate Notes in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York. The Company initially appoints Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, with a corporate trust office at 1 Columbus Circle, 4th Floor, Mail Stop: NYC01-0417, New York, New York 10019, for such purpose.

(ix) The Trustee is hereby appointed as the initial Paying Agent, the initial Security Registrar and, pursuant to the terms of a Calculation Agency Agreement, the initial calculation agent (the "Calculation Agent") with respect to each series of Floating Rate Notes. The Company may change the Calculation Agent with respect to any series of Floating Rate Notes at any time without notice to the Holders of either series of Floating Rate Notes. The interest rate and amount of interest to be paid on the Floating Rate Notes for each Interest Period shall be determined by the Calculation Agent. All determinations made by the Calculation Agent shall, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive for all purposes and binding on the Company and the Holders of the Floating Rate Notes.

(x) None of the Trustee, the Calculation Agent or the Paying Agent shall be under any obligation, to select, determine or designate any Benchmark Replacement or shall have any liability for any determination made by or on behalf of the Company or its designee in connection with a Benchmark Transition Event or a Benchmark Replacement, and each Holder, by its acceptance of a Floating Rate Note or a beneficial interest in a Floating Rate Note, shall be deemed to waive, release, and covenant not to assert any claims against the Trustee, the Calculation Agent or the Paying Agent relating to any such determinations. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, none of the Trustee, the Calculation Agent or the Paying Agent shall have any responsibility to determine whether any manifest error has occurred and may conclusively assume that no manifest error exists and shall suffer no liability in so assuming. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company's designee shall not be the Trustee or the Calculation Agent unless the Trustee or Calculation Agent, as applicable, agrees in writing.

(xi) The Floating Rate Notes shall not be subject to any sinking fund or analogous provisions, and no Holder of the Floating Rate Notes shall have any right to cause the Company to redeem any Floating Rate Notes at the option of the Holder.

(xii) The 2028 Floating Rate Notes shall not be redeemable prior to the Maturity Date at the option of the Company. The 2029 Floating Rate Notes are subject to the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption (as defined in the 2029 Floating Rate Notes) and the terms specified in the 2029 Floating Rate Notes shall govern such redemption. For the avoidance of doubt, an Officer's Certificate shall be provided in connection with a Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption.

(xiii) The Floating Rate Notes shall be issuable in the form of Global Securities registered in the name of The Depository Trust Company, as Depositary, or its nominee. The Global Securities representing the Floating Rate Notes may be exchanged for definitive Floating Rate Notes only in the circumstances set forth in the seventh or eighth paragraphs of Section 3.05 of the Indenture and in accordance with Section 3.05 of the Indenture.

(xiv) The Floating Rate Notes shall be issued in minimum denominations of two thousand Dollars ($2,000) and any integral multiples of one thousand Dollars ($1,000) in excess thereof.

(xv) Section 12.02 of the Indenture shall be applicable to the Floating Rate Notes.

(xvi) The Floating Rate Notes shall rank equally and pari passu with all other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of the Company.

(xvii) The Company shall not pay any additional amounts on the Floating Rate Notes to any Person, including any Holder who is not a United States Person, in respect of any tax, assessment or governmental charge withheld or deducted.

(xviii) For purposes of the Floating Rate Notes, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

(1) "Benchmark" means, initially, Compounded SOFR; provided that if the Company or its designee determine on or prior to the Reference Time that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to Compounded SOFR (or the published daily SOFR Index used in the calculation thereof) or the then-current Benchmark, then "Benchmark" means the applicable Benchmark Replacement.

(2) "Benchmark Replacement" means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by the Company or its designee as of the Benchmark Replacement Date:

(a) the sum of (i) the alternate rate of interest that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body as the replacement for the then-current Benchmark and (ii) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment;

(b) the sum of (i) the ISDA Fallback Rate and (ii) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment; or

(c) the sum of (i) the alternate rate of interest that has been selected by the Company or its designee as the replacement for the then-current Benchmark giving due consideration to any industry-accepted rate of interest as a replacement for the then-current Benchmark for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate notes at such time and (ii) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment.

(3) “Benchmark Replacement Adjustment” means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by the Company or its designee as of the Benchmark Replacement Date:

(a) the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero), or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body for the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement;

(b) if the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement is equivalent to the ISDA Fallback Rate, the ISDA Fallback Adjustment; or

(c) the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that has been selected by the Company or its designee giving due consideration to any industry-accepted spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, for the replacement of the then-current Benchmark with the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate notes at such time.

(4) “Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes” means, with respect to any Benchmark Replacement, any technical, administrative or operational changes (including changes to the definition or interpretation of the Interest Period, timing and frequency of determining rates and making payments of interest, rounding of amounts or tenors and other administrative matters) that the Company or its designee decide may be appropriate to reflect the adoption of such Benchmark Replacement in a manner substantially consistent with market practice (or, if the Company or its designee decide that adoption of any portion of such market practice is not administratively feasible or if the Company or its designee determine that no market practice for use of the Benchmark Replacement exists, in such other manner as the Company or its designee determine is reasonably practicable).

(5) “Benchmark Replacement Date” means the earliest to occur of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (including any daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

(a) in the case of clause (a) or (b) of the definition of “Benchmark Transition Event,” the later of (i) the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein and (ii) the date on which the administrator of the Benchmark permanently or indefinitely ceases to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or

(b) in the case of clause (c) of the definition of “Benchmark Transition Event,” the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein.

For the avoidance of doubt, if the event that gives rise to the Benchmark Replacement Date occurs on the same day as, but earlier than, the Reference Time in respect of any determination, the Benchmark Replacement Date shall be deemed to have occurred prior to the Reference Time for such determination.

For the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of the definitions of Benchmark Replacement Date and Benchmark Transition Event, references to Benchmark also include any reference rate underlying such Benchmark.

(6) “Benchmark Transition Event” means the occurrence of one or more of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (including the daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

(a) a public statement or publication of information by or on behalf of the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) announcing that such administrator has ceased or shall cease to provide the Benchmark (or such component), permanently or indefinitely; provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that shall continue to provide the Benchmark (or such component);

(b) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component), the central bank for the currency of the Benchmark (or such component), an insolvency official with jurisdiction over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component), a resolution authority with jurisdiction over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component) or a court or an entity with similar insolvency or resolution authority over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component), which states that the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) has ceased or shall cease to provide the Benchmark (or such component) permanently or indefinitely; provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that shall continue to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or

(c) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Benchmark announcing that the Benchmark is no longer representative.

If the February 20, May 20, August 20 or November 20 of any year is not a Business Day, then the next succeeding Business Day shall be the applicable Floating Rate Interest Payment Date and interest on this Note shall be paid on such next succeeding Business Day (unless such next succeeding Business Day falls in the succeeding calendar month, in which case the applicable Floating Rate Interest Payment Date shall be the Business Day immediately preceding such February 20, May 20, August 20 or November 20, and interest on the this Note shall be paid on such immediately preceding Business Day). The amount of interest accrued and payable on the Notes for each Interest Period shall be equal to the product of (i) the outstanding principal amount of the Notes multiplied by (ii) the product of (a) the interest rate for the relevant Interest Period multiplied by (b) the quotient of the actual number of calendar days in the Observation Period divided by 360. The interest rate for any Interest Period shall not be adjusted for any modifications or amendments to the SOFR Index or SOFR data that the New York Federal Reserve may publish after the interest rate for that Interest Period has been determined.

As used herein, “Business Day” means any day, other than a Saturday or Sunday, that is neither a legal holiday nor a day on which banking institutions are authorized or required by law or regulation to close in the City of New York.

The Calculation Agent shall, upon the request of any Holder of the Notes, provide the interest rate then in effect. All determinations made by the Calculation Agent shall, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive for all purposes and binding on the Company and the Holders of the Notes. So long as Compounded SOFR is required to be determined with respect to the Notes, there shall at all times be a Calculation Agent. The provisions of this Note are continued on the reverse hereof, and such continued provisions shall for all purposes have the same effect as though fully set forth at this place.

Unless the certificate of authentication hereon has been executed by the Trustee by the manual signature of one of its authorized officers, this Note shall not be entitled to the benefit under the Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose.

[REVERSE OF NOTE]

This Note is one of a duly authorized issue of a series of debt securities (the “Securities”) of the Company, designated as its Floating Rate Notes due 2028 (the “Notes”). The Securities, including the Notes, are all issued or to be issued under and pursuant to the Indenture, to which Indenture, and all Board Resolutions and Officers’ Certificates as provided therein, reference is hereby made for a description of the rights, limitation of rights, obligations, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes, and the terms upon which the Notes are, and are to be, authenticated and delivered. The Notes are initially limited to Seven Hundred and Fifty Million Dollars ($750,000,000) in aggregate principal amount; provided, however, without the consent of the Holders of any Securities, the Company may at any time issue additional Securities having the same terms as the Notes other than the date of original issuance and the first Floating Rate Interest Payment Date applicable to such additional Securities. Any such additional Securities shall constitute a single series of Securities with the Notes under the Indenture.

This Note shall constitute part of the Company’s unsecured and unsubordinated obligations and shall rank equally in right of payment with all of the Company’s other existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. This Note shall be issuable in fully registered form only, in minimum denominations of two thousand Dollars ($2,000) and any integral multiples of one thousand Dollars ($1,000) in excess of that amount.

In case an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing with respect to this Note, the principal hereof may be declared due and payable, and upon such declaration shall become due and payable, in the manner, with the effect, and subject to the conditions provided in the Indenture. The Indenture permits the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding to, on behalf of the Holders of all of the Notes and in the manner and subject to the provisions of the Indenture, waive certain past defaults and rescind and annul such past declarations and their consequences under the Indenture.

The Indenture contains provisions permitting the Company and the Trustee, with consent of the Holders of not less than a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding, evidenced as provided in the Indenture, to execute supplemental indentures for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of the Indenture or of any supplemental indenture with respect to the Notes or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture shall (i) extend the fixed maturity, or the earlier optional date of maturity, if any, of any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the premium thereon, if any, or reduce the rate or extend the time of payment of interest, if any, thereon or make the principal thereof or premium, if any, or interest, if any, thereon payable in any currency other than as provided pursuant to the Indenture or this Note, without the consent of the Holders of each Note so affected; or (ii) reduce the aforesaid percentage of the Notes, the Holders of which are required to consent to any such supplemental indenture, without the consent of the Holders of all Notes then outstanding.

The Notes shall not be redeemable, in whole or in part, prior to the Maturity Date. The Notes shall not have the benefit of any sinking fund and the Notes shall not be subject to any mandatory redemption provision.

SOFR Index Unavailable

If a SOFR IndexStart or SOFR IndexEnd is not published on the associated Interest Determination Date and a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have not occurred with respect to the Secured Overnight Financing Rate, “Compounded SOFR” shall mean, for the applicable Interest Period for which such index is not available, the rate of return on a daily compounded interest investment calculated in accordance with the formula for SOFR Averages, and definitions required for such formula, published on the New York Federal Reserve’s Website, initially located at <https://www.newyorkfed.org/markets/treasury-repo-reference-rates-information>. For the purposes of this provision, references in the SOFR Averages compounding formula and related definitions to “calculation period” shall be replaced with “Observation Period” and the words “that is, 30-, 90-, or 180- calendar days” shall be removed. If the daily Secured Overnight Financing Rate (“SOFR_i”) does not so appear for any day, “i” in the Observation Period, SOFR_i for such day “i” shall be SOFR published in respect of the first preceding U.S. Government Securities Business Day for which the Secured Overnight Financing Rate was published on the New York Federal Reserve’s Website.

Effect of a Benchmark Transition Event

(i) Notwithstanding anything contained herein, the Indenture, the Notes or in any other documents relating to the Notes, if the Company or its designee determines on or prior to the relevant Reference Time that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to the then-current Benchmark, the Benchmark Replacement shall replace the then-current Benchmark for all purposes relating to the Notes in respect of all determinations on such date and for all determinations on all subsequent dates.

(ii) In connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, the Company or its designee shall have the right to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes from time to time.

(iii) Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Company or its designee pursuant to the Benchmark Replacement provisions described herein, including a determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action or any selection:

(1) shall be conclusive and binding absent manifest error;

(2) if made by the Company, shall be made in the Company’s sole discretion;

(3) if made by the Company’s designee, shall be made after consultation with the Company, and such designee shall not make any such determination, decision or election to which the Company objects; and

(4) notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Notes or in the other documents relating to the Notes, including the Indenture, shall become effective without consent from the Holders of the Notes or any other party.

As used herein the following terms have the meanings assigned to them:

“Benchmark” means, initially, Compounded SOFR; provided that if the Company or its designee determines on or prior to the Reference Time that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to Compounded SOFR (or the published daily SOFR Index used in the calculation thereof) or the then-current Benchmark, then “Benchmark” means the applicable Benchmark Replacement.

“Benchmark Replacement” means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by the Company or its designee as of the Benchmark Replacement Date:

(1) the sum of (a) the alternate rate of interest that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body as the replacement for the then-current Benchmark and (b) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment;

(2) the sum of (a) the ISDA Fallback Rate and (b) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment; or

(3) the sum of (a) the alternate rate of interest that has been selected by the Company or its designee as the replacement for the then-current Benchmark giving due consideration to any industry-accepted rate of interest as a replacement for the then-current Benchmark for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate notes at such time and (b) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment.

None of the Trustee, the Calculation Agent or the Paying Agent shall be under any obligation, to select, determine or designate any Benchmark Replacement or shall have any liability for any determination made by or on behalf of the Company or its designee in connection with a Benchmark Transition Event or a Benchmark Replacement, and each Holder, by its acceptance of a Note or a beneficial interest in a Note, shall be deemed to waive, release, and covenant not to assert any claims against the Trustee, the Calculation Agent or the Paying Agent relating to any such determinations. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, none of the Trustee, the Calculation Agent or the Paying Agent shall have any responsibility to determine whether any manifest error has occurred and may conclusively assume that no manifest error exists and shall suffer no liability in so assuming. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company’s designee shall not be the Trustee or the Calculation Agent unless the Trustee or Calculation Agent, as applicable, agrees in writing.

“Benchmark Replacement Adjustment” means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by the Company or its designee as of the Benchmark Replacement Date:

(1) the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero), or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body for the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement;

(2) if the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement is equivalent to the ISDA Fallback Rate, the ISDA Fallback Adjustment; or

(3) the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that has been selected by the Company or its designee giving due consideration to any industry-accepted spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, for the replacement of the then-current Benchmark with the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate notes at such time.

“Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes” means, with respect to any Benchmark Replacement, any technical, administrative or operational changes (including changes to the definition or interpretation of the Interest Period, timing and frequency of determining rates and making payments of interest, rounding of amounts or tenors and other administrative matters) that the Company or its designee decide may be appropriate to reflect the adoption of such Benchmark Replacement in a manner substantially consistent with market practice (or, if the Company or its designee decide that adoption of any portion of such market practice is not administratively feasible or if the Company or its designee determine that no market practice for use of the Benchmark Replacement exists, in such other manner as the Company or its designee determine is reasonably practicable).

“Benchmark Replacement Date” means the earliest to occur of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (including any daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

(1) in the case of clause (1) or (2) of the definition of “Benchmark Transition Event,” the later of (a) the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein and (b) the date on which the administrator of the Benchmark permanently or indefinitely ceases to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or

(2) in the case of clause (3) of the definition of “Benchmark Transition Event,” the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein.

For the avoidance of doubt, if the event that gives rise to the Benchmark Replacement Date occurs on the same day as, but earlier than, the Reference Time in respect of any determination, the Benchmark Replacement Date shall be deemed to have occurred prior to the Reference Time for such determination.

For the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of the definitions of Benchmark Replacement Date and Benchmark Transition Event, references to Benchmark also include any reference rate underlying such Benchmark.

“Benchmark Transition Event” means the occurrence of one or more of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (including the daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

(1) a public statement or publication of information by or on behalf of the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) announcing that such administrator has ceased or shall cease to provide the Benchmark (or such component), permanently or indefinitely; provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that shall continue to provide the Benchmark (or such component);

(2) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component), the central bank for the currency of the Benchmark (or such component), an insolvency official with jurisdiction over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component), a resolution authority with jurisdiction over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component) or a court or an entity with similar insolvency or resolution authority over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component), which states that the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) has ceased or shall cease to provide the Benchmark (or such component) permanently or indefinitely; provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that shall continue to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or

(3) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Benchmark announcing that the Benchmark is no longer representative.

“Compounded SOFR” means, with respect to any Interest Period, the rate computed in accordance with the following formula set forth below (and the resulting percentage shall be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point (e.g., 9.753973% (or .09753973) being rounded down to 9.75397% (or .0975397) and 9.753978% (or .09753978) being rounded up to 9.75398% (or .0975398))):

(a) the SOFR Index value as published by the New York Federal Reserve as such index appears on the New York Federal Reserve’s Website at 3:00 p.m. (New York City time) on such U.S. Government Securities Business Day (the “SOFR Determination Time”); provided that:

(b) if a SOFR Index value does not so appear as specified in clause (1) above at the SOFR Determination Time, then:

- i. if a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date (each as defined below) have not occurred with respect to SOFR, then Compounded SOFR shall be the rate determined pursuant to the “SOFR Index Unavailable” provisions described below; or

If the February 20, May 20, August 20 or November 20 of any year is not a Business Day, then the next succeeding Business Day shall be the applicable Floating Rate Interest Payment Date and interest on this Note shall be paid on such next succeeding Business Day (unless such next succeeding Business Day falls in the succeeding calendar month, in which case the applicable Floating Rate Interest Payment Date shall be the Business Day immediately preceding such February 20, May 20, August 20 or November 20, and interest on the this Note shall be paid on such immediately preceding Business Day). If the Maturity Date is not a Business Day, the payment of principal of, and interest on, this Note shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day, and no interest shall accrue for the period from and after the Maturity Date.

The "initial Interest Period" means the period from and including May 20, 2026 to, but excluding, the first Floating Rate Interest Payment Date. Thereafter, each "Interest Period" means the period from and including a Floating Rate Interest Payment Date to, but excluding, the immediately succeeding Floating Rate Interest Payment Date (such succeeding Floating Rate Interest Payment Date, the "Latter Floating Rate Interest Payment Date"); provided that the final Interest Period for the Notes shall be the period from and including the Floating Rate Interest Payment Date immediately preceding the Maturity Date to, but excluding, the Maturity Date. Interest on the Notes shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year and the actual number of days in the Observation Period.

The interest rate for the initial Interest Period shall be Compounded SOFR determined on August 18, 2026, plus 0.460%. Thereafter, the interest rate for any Interest Period shall be Compounded SOFR, as determined on the applicable date that is the second U.S. Government Securities Business Day preceding such Floating Rate Interest Payment Date (the "Interest Determination Date"), plus a margin of 0.460%. In no event shall the interest on this Note higher than the maximum rate permitted by New York law as the same may be modified by United States law of general application, or lower than zero.

The amount of interest accrued and payable on the Notes for each Interest Period shall be equal to the product of (i) the outstanding principal amount of the Notes multiplied by (ii) the product of (a) the interest rate for the relevant Interest Period multiplied by (b) the quotient of the actual number of calendar days in the Observation Period divided by 360. The interest rate for any Interest Period shall not be adjusted for any modifications or amendments to the SOFR Index or SOFR data that the New York Federal Reserve may publish after the interest rate for that Interest Period has been determined.

As used herein, "Business Day" means any day, other than a Saturday or Sunday, that is neither a legal holiday nor a day on which banking institutions are authorized or required by law or regulation to close in the City of New York.

The interest rate and amount of interest to be paid on the Notes for each Interest Period shall be determined by Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, acting as calculation agent (the “Calculation Agent”). The Calculation Agent shall, upon the request of any Holder of the Notes, provide the interest rate then in effect. All determinations made by the Calculation Agent shall, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive for all purposes and binding on the Company and the Holders of the Notes. So long as Compounded SOFR is required to be determined with respect to the Notes, there shall at all times be a Calculation Agent. In the event that any then-acting Calculation Agent shall be unable or unwilling to act, or such Calculation Agent shall fail duly to establish Compounded SOFR for any Interest Period, or the Company proposes to remove such Calculation Agent, the Company shall appoint another Calculation Agent. The Company may appoint itself or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries as the Calculation Agent. The Company may change the Calculation Agent with respect to the Notes at any time without notice to the Holders of the Notes.

This Note is issued pursuant to, and shall be governed by, that certain Indenture (the “Indenture”), dated as of February 1, 1991, between the Company and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas (as successor to Citibank, N.A.), as trustee (the “Trustee”). Capitalized terms used in this Note without definition shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in the Indenture.

The provisions of this Note are continued on the reverse hereof, and such continued provisions shall for all purposes have the same effect as though fully set forth at this place.

Unless the certificate of authentication hereon has been executed by the Trustee by the manual signature of one of its authorized officers, this Note shall not be entitled to the benefit under the Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose.

[REVERSE OF NOTE]

This Note is one of a duly authorized issue of a series of debt securities (the “Securities”) of the Company, designated as its Floating Rate Notes due 2029 (the “Notes”). The Securities, including the Notes, are all issued or to be issued under and pursuant to the Indenture, to which Indenture, and all Board Resolutions and Officers’ Certificates as provided therein, reference is hereby made for a description of the rights, limitation of rights, obligations, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes, and the terms upon which the Notes are, and are to be, authenticated and delivered. The Notes are initially limited to Five Hundred Million Dollars ($500,000,000) in aggregate principal amount; provided, however, without the consent of the Holders of any Securities, the Company may at any time issue additional Securities having the same terms as the Notes other than the date of original issuance and the first Floating Rate Interest Payment Date applicable to such additional Securities. Any such additional Securities shall constitute a single series of Securities with the Notes under the Indenture.

This Note shall constitute part of the Company’s unsecured and unsubordinated obligations and shall rank equally in right of payment with all of the Company’s other existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. This Note shall be issuable in fully registered form only, in minimum denominations of two thousand Dollars ($2,000) and any integral multiples of one thousand Dollars ($1,000) in excess of that amount.

In case an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing with respect to this Note, the principal hereof may be declared due and payable, and upon such declaration shall become due and payable, in the manner, with the effect, and subject to the conditions provided in the Indenture. The Indenture permits the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding to, on behalf of the Holders of all of the Notes and in the manner and subject to the provisions of the Indenture, waive certain past defaults and rescind and annul such past declarations and their consequences under the Indenture.

The Indenture contains provisions permitting the Company and the Trustee, with consent of the Holders of not less than a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding, evidenced as provided in the Indenture, to execute supplemental indentures for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of the Indenture or of any supplemental indenture with respect to the Notes or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture shall (i) extend the fixed maturity, or the earlier optional date of maturity, if any, of any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the premium thereon, if any, or reduce the rate or extend the time of payment of interest, if any, thereon or make the principal thereof or premium, if any, or interest, if any, thereon payable in any currency other than as provided pursuant to the Indenture or this Note, without the consent of the Holders of each Note so affected; or (ii) reduce the aforesaid percentage of the Notes, the Holders of which are required to consent to any such supplemental indenture, without the consent of the Holders of all Notes then outstanding.

The Notes shall not be redeemable, in whole or in part, prior to the Maturity Date, except pursuant to the mandatory redemption provision set forth below under “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption.” The Notes shall not have the benefit of any sinking fund.

Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption

In the event that (x) the Centessa Acquisition is not consummated on or prior to the date that is five (5) Business Days after the later of (i) March 31, 2027 or (ii) any later date as the parties to the Centessa Agreement may agree as the “Outside Date” thereunder or (y) the Company notifies the Trustee in writing that the Company will not pursue the consummation of the Centessa Acquisition (any such event being a “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Event”), the Company will be required to redeem the Notes then outstanding (such redemption, the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption”) at a redemption price equal to 101% of the principal amount of such Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date (as defined below) (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Price”).

In the event that the Company becomes obligated to redeem the Notes pursuant to the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption, the Company will promptly, and in any event not more than ten (10) Business Days after the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Event, deliver written notice (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice”) to each registered Holder of the Notes and the Trustee of the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption and the date upon which the Notes will be redeemed (the “Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date,” which date shall be no earlier than five (5) days and no later than thirty (30) days following the date of such notice, unless some longer minimum period may be required by DTC (or any successor depository)). The Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice will, in accordance with the Trustee’s (if applicable) and DTC’s (or any successor depository’s) procedures, be mailed, electronically delivered, or otherwise transmitted, according to the procedures of DTC (or any successor depository) to each registered Holder of the Notes. Any Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Notice may be given by the Company or may be given, at the Company’s written direction, by the Trustee in the Company’s name and at the Company’s expense.

Unless the Company defaults in payment of the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Price of the Notes, on and after such Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date, interest will cease to accrue on the Notes.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, installments of interest on the Notes that are due and payable on a Floating Rate Interest Payment Date falling on or prior to the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption Date will be payable on such Floating Rate Interest Payment Date to the registered Holders of the Notes as of the close of business on the relevant record date in accordance with the Notes and the Indenture.

Upon the consummation of the Centessa Acquisition, the foregoing provisions regarding the Centessa Special Mandatory Redemption will cease to apply. For purposes of the foregoing, the Centessa Acquisition will be deemed consummated if the closing under the Centessa Agreement occurs, including after giving effect to any amendments, modifications or waivers to the Centessa Agreement.

“Centessa” means Centessa Pharmaceuticals plc, a public limited company registered in England and Wales.

“Centessa Acquisition” means the acquisition by Eli Lilly and Company (including through the Purchaser (as defined below)) of Centessa and its subsidiaries pursuant to the Centessa Agreement.

SOFR Index Unavailable

If a SOFR IndexStart or SOFR IndexEnd is not published on the associated Interest Determination Date and a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have not occurred with respect to the Secured Overnight Financing Rate, “Compounded SOFR” shall mean, for the applicable Interest Period for which such index is not available, the rate of return on a daily compounded interest investment calculated in accordance with the formula for SOFR Averages, and definitions required for such formula, published on the New York Federal Reserve’s Website, initially located at <https://www.newyorkfed.org/markets/treasury-repo-reference-rates-information>. For the purposes of this provision, references in the SOFR Averages compounding formula and related definitions to “calculation period” shall be replaced with “Observation Period” and the words “that is, 30-, 90-, or 180- calendar days” shall be removed. If the daily Secured Overnight Financing Rate (“SOFRi”) does not so appear for any day, “i” in the Observation Period, SOFRi for such day “i” shall be SOFR published in respect of the first preceding U.S. Government Securities Business Day for which the Secured Overnight Financing Rate was published on the New York Federal Reserve’s Website.

Effect of a Benchmark Transition Event

(i) Notwithstanding anything contained herein, the Indenture, the Notes or in any other documents relating to the Notes, if the Company or its designee determines on or prior to the relevant Reference Time that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to the then-current Benchmark, the Benchmark Replacement shall replace the then-current Benchmark for all purposes relating to the Notes in respect of all determinations on such date and for all determinations on all subsequent dates.

(ii) In connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, the Company or its designee shall have the right to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes from time to time.

(iii) Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Company or its designee pursuant to the Benchmark Replacement provisions described herein, including a determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action or any selection:

(1) shall be conclusive and binding absent manifest error;

(2) if made by the Company, shall be made in the Company's sole discretion;

(3) if made by the Company's designee, shall be made after consultation with the Company, and such designee shall not make any such determination, decision or election to which the Company objects; and

(4) notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Notes or in the other documents relating to the Notes, including the Indenture, shall become effective without consent from the Holders of the Notes or any other party.

As used herein the following terms have the meanings assigned to them:

"Benchmark" means, initially, Compounded SOFR; provided that if the Company or its designee determines on or prior to the Reference Time that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to Compounded SOFR (or the published daily SOFR Index used in the calculation thereof) or the then-current Benchmark, then "Benchmark" means the applicable Benchmark Replacement.

"Benchmark Replacement" means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by the Company or its designee as of the Benchmark Replacement Date:

(1) the sum of (a) the alternate rate of interest that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body as the replacement for the then-current Benchmark and (b) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment;

(2) the sum of (a) the ISDA Fallback Rate and (b) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment; or

(3) the sum of (a) the alternate rate of interest that has been selected by the Company or its designee as the replacement for the then-current Benchmark giving due consideration to any industry-accepted rate of interest as a replacement for the then-current Benchmark for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate notes at such time and (b) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment.

None of the Trustee, the Calculation Agent or the Paying Agent shall be under any obligation, to select, determine or designate any Benchmark Replacement or shall have any liability for any determination made by or on behalf of the Company or its designee in connection with a Benchmark Transition Event or a Benchmark Replacement, and each Holder, by its acceptance of a Note or a beneficial interest in a Note, shall be deemed to waive, release, and covenant not to assert any claims against the Trustee, the Calculation Agent or the Paying Agent relating to any such determinations. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, none of the Trustee, the Calculation Agent or the Paying Agent shall have any responsibility to determine whether any manifest error has occurred and may conclusively assume that no manifest error exists and shall suffer no liability in so assuming. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company's designee shall not be the Trustee or the Calculation Agent unless the Trustee or Calculation Agent, as applicable, agrees in writing.

“Benchmark Replacement Adjustment” means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by the Company or its designee as of the Benchmark Replacement Date:

- (1) the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero), or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body for the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement;
- (2) if the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement is equivalent to the ISDA Fallback Rate, the ISDA Fallback Adjustment; or
- (3) the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that has been selected by the Company or its designee giving due consideration to any industry-accepted spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, for the replacement of the then-current Benchmark with the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate notes at such time.

“Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes” means, with respect to any Benchmark Replacement, any technical, administrative or operational changes (including changes to the definition or interpretation of the Interest Period, timing and frequency of determining rates and making payments of interest, rounding of amounts or tenors and other administrative matters) that the Company or its designee decide may be appropriate to reflect the adoption of such Benchmark Replacement in a manner substantially consistent with market practice (or, if the Company or its designee decide that adoption of any portion of such market practice is not administratively feasible or if the Company or its designee determine that no market practice for use of the Benchmark Replacement exists, in such other manner as the Company or its designee determine is reasonably practicable).

“Benchmark Replacement Date” means the earliest to occur of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (including any daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

- (1) in the case of clause (1) or (2) of the definition of “Benchmark Transition Event,” the later of (a) the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein and (b) the date on which the administrator of the Benchmark permanently or indefinitely ceases to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or
- (2) in the case of clause (3) of the definition of “Benchmark Transition Event,” the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein.

For the avoidance of doubt, if the event that gives rise to the Benchmark Replacement Date occurs on the same day as, but earlier than, the Reference Time in respect of any determination, the Benchmark Replacement Date shall be deemed to have occurred prior to the Reference Time for such determination.

For the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of the definitions of Benchmark Replacement Date and Benchmark Transition Event, references to Benchmark also include any reference rate underlying such Benchmark.

“Benchmark Transition Event” means the occurrence of one or more of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (including the daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

(1) a public statement or publication of information by or on behalf of the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) announcing that such administrator has ceased or shall cease to provide the Benchmark (or such component), permanently or indefinitely; provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that shall continue to provide the Benchmark (or such component);

(2) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component), the central bank for the currency of the Benchmark (or such component), an insolvency official with jurisdiction over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component), a resolution authority with jurisdiction over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component) or a court or an entity with similar insolvency or resolution authority over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component), which states that the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) has ceased or shall cease to provide the Benchmark (or such component) permanently or indefinitely; provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that shall continue to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or

(3) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Benchmark announcing that the Benchmark is no longer representative.

“Compounded SOFR” means, with respect to any Interest Period, the rate computed in accordance with the following formula set forth below (and the resulting percentage shall be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point (e.g., 9.753973% (or .09753973) being rounded down to 9.75397% (or .0975397) and 9.753978% (or .09753978) being rounded up to 9.75398% (or .0975398))):

“dc” is the actual number of calendar days from (and including) SOFR IndexStart to (but excluding) SOFR IndexEnd (the actual number of calendar days in the applicable Observation Period).

For purposes of determining Compounded SOFR, “SOFR Index” means, with respect to any U.S. Government Securities Business Day:

(c) the SOFR Index value as published by the New York Federal Reserve as such index appears on the New York Federal Reserve’s Website at 3:00 p.m. (New York City time) on such U.S. Government Securities Business Day (the “SOFR Determination Time”); provided that:

(d) if a SOFR Index value does not so appear as specified in clause (1) above at the SOFR Determination Time, then:

- iii. if a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date (each as defined below) have not occurred with respect to SOFR, then Compounded SOFR shall be the rate determined pursuant to the “SOFR Index Unavailable” provisions described below; or
- iv. if a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to SOFR, then Compounded SOFR shall be the rate determined pursuant to the “Effect of a Benchmark Transition Event” provisions described below.

“Reference Time” with respect to any determination of the Benchmark means (1) if the Benchmark is Compounded SOFR, the SOFR Determination Time, and (2) if the Benchmark is not Compounded SOFR, the time determined by the Company or its designee after giving effect to the Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes.

“Relevant Governmental Body” means the Federal Reserve Board and/or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, or a committee officially endorsed or convened by the Federal Reserve Board and/or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York or any successor thereto.

For purposes of this opinion, we have assumed the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to the originals of all documents submitted to us as copies and the authenticity of the originals of all documents submitted to us as copies. In reliance on the Other Opinion (as defined below), we have also assumed the genuineness of the signatures of persons signing all documents in connection with which this opinion is rendered, the authority of such persons signing on behalf of the parties thereto and the due authorization, execution and delivery of all documents by the parties thereto. We have not independently established or verified any facts relevant to the opinion expressed herein, but have relied upon statements and representations of officers and other representatives of the Company and others.

In reliance on the Other Opinion, we have assumed further that the Company is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Indiana and has all legal right, power and authority to issue the Notes and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Indenture and the Notes. We have also assumed the due authorization, execution and delivery of the Indenture by the Company and the Trustee and the due authorization of the Notes by the Company. We note that you are relying with respect to these matters and all matters of Indiana law on an opinion of Jamie Burnett, Associate Vice President—Assistant General Counsel—Finance and Corporate Governance of the Company, dated as of the date hereof, which opinion is filed as Exhibit 5.2 to the Current Report on Form 8-K to be filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission on the date hereof and to be incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement (the “Other Opinion”). We have also assumed that the execution and delivery of the Indenture and the Notes and the performance by the Company of its obligations thereunder do not and will not violate, conflict with or constitute a default under any agreement or instrument to which the Company is bound.

Our opinion expressed below is subject to the qualifications that we express no opinion as to the applicability of, compliance with, or effect of (i) any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent transfer, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium or other similar law affecting the enforcement of creditors’ rights generally, (ii) general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law) and (iii) public policy considerations that may limit the rights of parties to obtain certain remedies.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing qualifications, assumptions and limitations and the further limitations set forth below, we are of the opinion that, when the Notes have been duly executed and authenticated in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture and delivered to and paid for by the Underwriters pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement, the Notes will constitute binding obligations of the Company.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as Exhibit 5.1 to the Current Report on Form 8-K to be filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission on the date hereof and its incorporation by reference into the Registration Statement. Our advice on every legal issue addressed in this letter is based exclusively on the internal law of the State of New York and represents our opinion as to how that issue would be resolved were it to be considered by the highest court in the jurisdiction which enacted such law. The manner in which any particular issue relating to the opinions would be treated in any actual court case would depend in part on facts and circumstances particular to the case and would also depend on how the court involved chose to exercise the wide discretionary authority generally available to it. None of the opinions or other advice contained in this letter considers or covers any foreign or state securities (or “blue sky”) laws or regulations. This opinion is limited to the specific issues addressed herein, and no opinion may be inferred or implied beyond that expressly stated herein. Sincerely,

/s/ Kirkland & Ellis LLP
